| | | TOTAL Increase of 128, or 18·551 per cent. | |

The following Table exhibits the total number of Criminal Offenders in Scotland for the years 1854 and 1855, distinguishing males from females, the total number brought to trial, the number convicted under the aggravation of previous convictions, and the number sentenced to death and executed.

| Period. | Committed for Trial or Bailed. | | | Tried. | Total Convicted, Outlawed, or found Insane. | Convicted under aggravation of previous Convictions. | Sentenced to Death. | Executed. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Males. | Females. | Total. | | | | | |
| 1854 | 2,883 | 1,111 | 3,994 | 3,265 | 3,015 | 953 | 1 | 1 |
| 1855 | 2,568 | 1,062 | 3,630 | 2,961 | 2,728 | 852 | 2 | 1 |

The proportion of convictions to committals in 1854 was 75·488 per cent.; in 1855 it was 75·152 per cent. The proportion of acquittals to committals in 1854 was 24·512 per cent.; in 1855 it was 24·848 per cent.

The subjoined Table exhibits the classes of offences and the number of offenders in each class.

| OFFENCES. | 1854. | 1855. |
|---|---|---|
| Offences against the Person | 1,066 | 972 |
| Offences against Property committed with Violence | 548 | 377 |
| Offences against Property committed without Violence | 1,996 | 1,836 |
| Malicious Offence against Property | 53 | 78 |
| Forgery and Offences against Currency | 87 | 124 |
| Other Offences not included in the above Classes | 244 | 243 |

In this Table it will be seen that offences against the person have decreased 8·8171 per cent.; offences against property with violence, 31·2 per cent.; offences against property without violence, 8·016 per cent.: and other offences not included in the above classes, 0·41 per cent. While, on the other hand, malicious offences against property have increased 47·17 per cent.; and forgery and offences against the currency, 42·53 per cent.

The following Table shows the number of male and female offenders of all ages who could neither read nor write, who could read or write imperfectly, who could read and write well, as also those who had received a superior education.

| Period. | Could neither Read nor Write. | | Could Read and Write imperfectly. | | Could Read and Write well. | | Had superior Education. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Males. | Females. | Males. | Females. | Males. | Females. | Males. | Females. |

| 1855 | 474 | 293 | 1,511 | 691 | 486 | 72 | 77 | 5 |

In 1854 the total number committed who could neither read nor write was 878; in 1855, 767; hence a decrease of 12·64 per cent.; of those who could read and write imperfectly, 6·97 per cent.; of those who could read and write well, 14·939 per cent.; and of those who had a superior education there is an increase of 5·1283 per cent.

The results of the proceedings in the Commitments made in the last year were :—

London, 14th March 1856.

J. MONCREIFF.

The following TABLES for SCOTLAND have, by directions from the HOME OFFICE, been substituted for the Form specified in the Statute 1 Gul. IV. c. 37. with the view of more nearly assimilating them to the Criminal Tables now in use to be presented to Parliament for England. In consequence of the different systems of Criminal Procedure in the two Countries, a complete assimilation was impracticable; but to assist in bringing the assimilation more close for comparative investigation, a comparative Table of the respective Classifications of Offences is here annexed.

TABLE,

Comparing the Classification of Offences, in the Criminal Tables now in Use to be Presented to Parliament for England, with the Classification of Offences in the Annexed Tables for Scotland.

LIST of REFORMATORIES which have been refused CERTIFICATION.

CAMBRIDGE REFORMATORY, Cambridge.

Certificate refused, 5 January 1856,

On the ground that it was not desirable to combine, as was proposed, a Reformatory School for Juvenile Offend with an existing Industrial School in Cambridge for other classes of boys. The Managers were reported by Inspector to concur with him in the expediency of having a separate institution as a Reformatory School at some li distance from the town; and it was intimated to him, that measures would be taken for effecting this object.

HOME-IN-THE-EAST, situated at Old Ford, in the Parish of Bow, Middlesex.

Certificate refused, 18 October 1854,

On the ground that the premises, though susceptible of improvement, were not, when inspected, convenient to purposes for which they were appropriated, and that there were defects in the employment, cleanliness, and clothing the boys—which, however, the Inspector was informed would be remedied; and that there were no means of detain unwilling inmates. A renewed application for a Certificate having been made in October 1855, a further report called for from the Inspector, and upon his report that the building and the general condition of the Institution w in a much more satisfactory condition than at the time of his former visit, that the boys were suitably employed, a that the apartments appropriated to their use were clean and neat, a Certificate was granted.

DIGEST OF POOR LAWS.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 6 August 1855;—for,

COPY "of any CORRESPONDENCE that has taken place with the LORD CHANCELLOR in reference to the incomplete Copy of the DIGEST of POOR LAWS, by Mr. Coode, laid on the Table of this House, pursuant to an Order of the 14th day of December last; and in reference also to a complete Copy of that Digest, subsequently offered to the Lord Chancellor by Mr. Coode."

10 November 1853.

My dear Sir,

MR. KER has mentioned to me that you are anxious to have an interview with the Lord Chancellor, respecting some change you propose in the mode of proceeding on the Statute Law Commission. I have mentioned this desire to his Lordship, and he has directed me to say, that as he is anxious for the publication of the Report, which has been delayed until the printing of your Digest—a delay which has caused him much embarrassment—he will postpone seeing you till that Digest is completed, after which he will be happy to see you. Perhaps, however, before seeing the Chancellor, you would be good enough to call upon me to explain to me the points on which you wish to speak to him, so as to narrow them as much as possible.

I remain, &c.
(signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

George Coode, Esq.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
3 December 1853.

Dear Sir,

IN reply to your note of this day, I have to inform you that I have reckoned, and still do so, of being able to inform the Lord Chancellor before the end of this week of the completion of my Digest.

His Lordship has been entirely misled as to the time of my undertaking of the Digest, and as to my claims in regard to it; and he has been induced to lay upon me obligations and disadvantages wholly incompatible with any right understanding of the matter.

Being by his Lordship's pleasure precluded from all opportunity of redress until my work is done, I have silently and cheerfully complied with the hard conditions imposed on me: I have accepted the situation made for me, and all its inconveniences, in the full confidence that his Lordship, when he has the opportunity of being properly informed, will do so much right to me as it will then be in his power to do.

I shall then, when I announce to his Lordship the completion of my Digest, request the honour of placing it into his Lordship's hands, and the further honour of being allowed to make a statement to his Lordship, which I think necessary, no less to enable him to realise his honourable purposes, than for my own personal protection.

Meanwhile, as regards the immediate publication of the Commissioners' papers at once, and quite independently of the time of publication of my Digest, I beg to state that this is exactly the course originally agreed on between Mr. Ker and myself, and that the subsequent departure from it was a breach of faith with me, continued only to annoy and oppress myself, and to discredit me if possible with his Lordship and my colleagues, and the public; that my papers were prepared and printed with this understanding will be apparent to you on reference to pages 57 to 63.

That when, in the month of September, the after-thought of delaying the papers until the Digest could appear was announced to me, I remonstrated against the course on these grounds, that the Digest was no work of the Commission, nor of myself as a Commissioner, and ought to have no such connexion with our Reports as that which it was sought to assume; that our papers, prepared in our character of Commissioners, being completed, and printed, and presented, and paid for, their detention from the public on any plea, especially on the fictitious pretext of a dependence on my Digest, would not only be unjustifiable, but would, in proportion to the delay thus previously incurred, prevent the due consideration of their contents, and deprive them of their utility.

The grounds for the remonstrances still apply in scarcely diminished force: the printing of my Digest must still occupy some weeks, even although the printers be allowed to proceed without interference or interruption, and every one of these weeks is obviously of increasing value, if the papers themselves are of any value. As regards the note which his Lordship proposes to append to the Reports, stating that my Digest is not ready, I beg to observe that, inasmuch as it is quite usual to print and circulate Reports before Appendixes, even when the Appendixes are the groundwork of the Reports, and a part of the same proceedings, it will be an unusual thing to announce my Digest as anything more than an Appendix about to follow. I have cheerfully submitted to a continuous course of misrepresentations and detraction, having no fear of the ultimate consequences so long as his Lordship does not give his public countenance to them; but if his Lordship should by this note or otherwise put any public misconstruction upon me, I do not see how the injury would be repairable.

If such a note, then, should be appended, I would request that I may be permitted to see it first, in order that no irretrievable mistake should be made.

Believe me, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

Dear Sir, Lincoln's Inn, 10 December 1853.

Mr. Bellenden Ker has informed me that, to a letter which he wrote to you on the 5th instant, by direction of the Lord Chancellor, he has received no reply. As I know his Lordship was anxious for your answer to that letter, I should be glad to know from you whether it has come to your hands.

I should add that, if it has reached you, a reply should immediately be sent to it, as emanating from the person entrusted by the Lord Chancellor with the direction of the Statute Law Board.

Believe me, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,

Dear Sir, 10 December 1853.

Mr. Bellenden Ker's letter reached me on a day when I was confined to my bed; it required a long answer, and I am without the means of copying anything but such as my son can afford me at overtimes after his day's work; nevertheless, the answer was fair copied, and was signed by me yesterday, and was delivered to the messenger this morning for Mr. Ker.

Allow me to add, that when Mr. Ker, who has nothing to do, is charged directly by the Lord Chancellor to communicate to me on very important subjects, he dispenses himself from his duty altogether for several months, and then contents himself with a very summary ignoration of the whole matter in half a dozen words of mouth.

Believe me, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

Dear

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
Dear Sir, 12 December 1853.

In my haste to answer your letter of Saturday last, while your messenger was waiting, I was not explicit enough; I beg to supply what was wanting in my answer. Your letter had reference to the supposed delay on my part in answering a letter of Mr. Ker's.

I ought to have stated that Mr. Ker's letter, dated the 5th instant, appears to have taken two days in travelling to me, for it only reached my house on the 7th.

As I mentioned to you, I was ill when it was received; the letter required a long answer; I have for fair copying only the casual aid of my son; and yet, in the time which Mr. Ker's letter took to travel from Lincoln's Inn to Westminster, my long answer was written, and fair copied, and ready for delivery.

In explanation of the last paragraph in my hasty letter of Saturday, my remarks related to my letter to the Lord Chancellor, dated the 13th of August last, in which I suggested to his Lordship, which I then thought, and still think, a very important matter, namely, the preparation during the recess of Parliament of some Bills, after the manner described in my papers. I was not honoured with any answer to my letter, or notice of it, until at our last meeting at Mr. Ker's chambers; he then informed me that the Lord Chancellor had requested him to write to me to the effect, that his Lordship considered the matter to come within the general scope of the labours of the Commission, but that Mr. Ker had forgotten to write to me, and begged me to take that oral communication for an answer. I adverted to the fact, as showing how different a measure Mr. Ker applies to me, of whom he requires a long letter on the instant, in less than a day, and to himself, who could not favour me with a very short one in four months.

Believe me, &c.
The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode

Dear Sir, Upper Brook-street, 3 January 1854.

I am directed by the Lord Chancellor to ask you whether your Digest is now ready. His Lordship wishes the Report to be printed and in the hand of Members at the meeting of Parliament; and if your Digest is not ready, it will be necessary to direct the printing to proceed without it, with a note appended, stating that your Digest is not yet ready.

Believe me, &c.
George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
Dear Sir, 1 February 1854.

I am glad to be able at length to state, for the information of the Lord Chancellor, that I have completed my Digest of Poor Law Statutes; it contains all that is in force in relation to the subject in 342 statutes, consisting of 8,636 sections, and it accounts for all that is not in force: it has ample indexes and tables, some of the special use of which, as penned, I hope to be allowed to point out in a paper, which I trust that his Lordship will allow me to present to him.

As his Lordship has been entirely misled in relation to this undertaking, and his confidence in Mr. Ker in respect to the Statute Law Commission systematically abused, no less to the prejudice of his Lordship's objects than to my personal oppression, it becomes necessary for me now to ask his Lordship for this interview, which he promised to me when my Digest should be completed. In that interview I hope to have the honour of placing my work, with my explanation, in his Lordship's hands, and to make my statement as to Mr. Ker. Perhaps, as the statement is very multifarious, being, in fact, a detailed history, with elucidations, of Mr. Ker's constant misconduct during the whole 10 months that I have had to submit to it, it may be convenient that I should, as was formerly proposed by himself, draw up the heads of it in writing; this would require some days, however; but, with his Lordship's permission, I will, although at present nearly prostrated by the labour of the Digest, set about it at once.

In the meantime, as a matter of immediate importance, I beg to call his Lordship's attention to the Government Bill on Settlement Law, which I have had the honour both of proposing and preparing. The intelligence of the Bill by the Houses and the public, and the power of dealing with so involved a matter, will be greatly aided by the circulation with the Bill, or before it, of that part of the Digest which relates to Settlements and Removals. This matter is, two-thirds of it, already in type, indexed analytically and alphabetically; and the whole of it, which would occupy about 40 pages, could be completed by the printers within a week, and circulated immediately. I beg to ask his Lordship's permission to proceed forthwith to separate this part from the rest, and to put it into the printers' hands, with a view to its earliest possible distribution to the Members of both Houses.

I have, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,

Dear Sir, 2 February 1854.

In reference to the latter part of my letter to you of yesterday's date, I beg further to inform you that I had an interview this morning with Mr. Baines, the President of the Poor Law Board, and that he allows me to say, that in case the Lord Chancellor should think it fitting that the portion of my Digest which relates to Settlement and Removal should, with its parts of the tables and indexes, be at once printed and distributed, Mr. Baines, for himself, would think that it would be serviceable for the use of the House in the course of the Bill on the same subject with which he is charged.

I have, &c.

(signed) George Coode.

P.S.—I enclose for the use of the Lord Chancellor a copy of my Report on Settlement.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice.

27, Duke-street, St. James's,

My dear Sir, 3 February 1854.

The Lord Chancellor directs me to say, that he thinks it better that you should, before seeing him, do as you propose in your letter to me of the 1st inst., make a statement to him, in writing, of the causes of complaint which you have against Mr. Bellenden Ker. He will then appoint some day for seeing you on the subject of your statement with reference to your proposal to print a part of the Digest of the Poor Laws, in order that it may be circulated with the Bill about to be brought in by the Government to amend the Law of Settlement. The Lord Chancellor thinks you had better first complete the whole, as originally proposed to be printed, as an Appendix to the Report of the Statute Law Board, and that you will then be at liberty to make such arrangements with Mr. Baines for the printing of the part relating to settlement as to you and him should seem fit.

Ever yours, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

My

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
My Lord, 3 April 1854.

I TAKE the course of addressing your Lordship directly, in the trust that I am no longer subject to Mr. Ker's intervention.

I was informed by Mr. Ker that you desired to be furnished with a consolidation of some portion of the statute law done by my hands by the end of March 1854.

It appeared to me to be desirable, and indeed almost necessary, in order to show what might be effected in this way, that a proper subject should be chosen upon which the labour might be profitably bestowed.

None so good appears to me as that which logically occupies the very first plan in every scientific division of the Digest of the Law, namely, the interests, rights, obligations, wrongs, remedies, penalties, and procedure, specifically related to corporeal persons or body.

This subject would present the simplest elements, most easily understood in practice and by language by every class of persons, involving a regular gradation and succession of facts, from the rudest, grossest material interest, up to the highest complications of the most artificial procedure; so that no process of expression would have wanted its illustration.

It has this great advantage, of combining a larger portion of the most ancient, middle age, and modern legislation in present action, than any other subject.

As a consequence of this, it is in a state in which a re-expression of it in connected order, and in modern and consistent language, would be of the highest practical value.

This value being a popular one, extending in almost equal degree to every man, woman and child, of every rank and condition, would have operated to an extent not approached by any other subject.

Moreover, it had the great advantage of involving no difficulties of present unpopularity, recent settlement, ministerial or political pledge, or policy, or convenience; the whole matter was open and unencumbered, except by its own map, which was the very last reason for its reduction to a consolidated state.

It was a further reason to myself to select this subject, that, beginning with the very first foundation stone of a systematic consolidation, it would show that no difficulty was evaded, and would by its successful performance have shown that all the less comprehensive subjects could, as mere matter of digestion, be dealt with by the use of the like industry.

I had made a great progress in preparing the material for this work, when Mr. Ker gave directions to the printer not to supply me with the copies of the ancient Acts required for the purpose, on the pretence that he could not authorise the expenditure of the few shillings required for this end; and upon my further urgence, he informed me that it was not your Lordship's purpose to engage in any systematic consolidation.

He then undertook to select some subjects for me; on my request to be furnished with those, he repeated his promise; but to this day he has not performed it, but has left me with my own chosen design arbitrarily corrected; and with no other work suggested, and exposed, by no fault of mine, to the danger of failing to realise your Lordship's fair expectations from my engagement.

I am unwilling to be so wholly useless; and although prevented from pursuing my own purpose, or from knowing your Lordship's better pleasure, I have prepared for your Lordship two consolidations, so far as, without your Lordship's practical directions, they can be done, on subjects which have an immediate present interest, and of which I may assume that I have had your Lordship's approbation by anticipation.

These are, first, a consolidation of the statutory provisions relating to the settlement and removal of the poor—a subject of Her Majesty's Speech on the opening of the present Session of Parliament, and now inducing active discussions, which I trust will be usefully aided by the early distribution of this paper.

Secondly, a consolidation of the statutory provisions and of the judicial exposition relating to the objects, imposition, levy, and protection of the poor's rate—a subject which, with the connected subjects of the other local taxes, is one of great and growing interest, for the right consideration of which such a consolidation as the present may be hoped to afford some valuable facilities.

Inasmuch as both these subjects are incidents of this General Digest of Poor Laws, the completion of which by your Lordship's commands I had the honour to announce some month or two ago, I entertain the hope that, notwithstanding the darkness in which I have been kept in regard to your Lordship's pleasure, I cannot incur your Lordship's disapprobation, under the circumstances, for the selection of the subjects of these consolidations, which I have now the honour to place in your hands.

The uses of these compilations in the preparation of Bills, on the whole or parts of these subjects, are displayed in separate introductions prefixed to each of them.

I have, &c.

The Right Hon.
The Lord Chancellor.

Sir, House of Lords, 27 April 1854.

I AM directed by the Lord Chancellor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 3d inst., which the press of business has prevented him paying attention to sooner.

In answer, I should observe, that at the time you proposed to Mr. Bellenden Ker to commence a Systematic Digest of the Statute Law "relating to rights and integrity of health of the body," referred to at paragraph 59 of one of your papers, and which is adverted to in your letter of the 3d inst., the Lord Chancellor was not prepared to enter on the consideration of the subject of a Systematic Digest on the plan suggested by you; and it became unnecessary then so to do, as it was clear that such a task could not then be successfully commenced at nearly the expiration of the year for which the services of yourself and your colleagues were engaged. It was, therefore, by the Lord Chancellor's directions that Mr. Ker stated that it was not expedient that you should commence that undertaking, and no other subject was suggested to you for consolidation, inasmuch as at that time the Digest of the Poor Law had not been completed by you; and you had also been requested by Mr. Ker to complete the notes on the different Consolidated Clauses Acts, which you had informed him you had already commenced.

With reference to the two subjects now selected by you, as specimens of consolidation (forming in fact a portion of that Digest which was referred to in the First Report of Mr. Bellenden Ker, as completed, and an imperfect copy of which was laid on the table of the House of Lords by the Lord Chancellor with the First Report), I am directed by the Lord Chancellor to inform you, that he is desirous that the specimens which you have forwarded should be at once printed, as your contribution to the Third Report, assuming that it is convenient to you, the year of your engagement having expired, to superintend the printing of these, so that they may be ready by the third week after the recess to be laid on the table with the Third and concluding Report of Mr. Bellenden Ker, in which case I will give the Queen's printers directions to proceed with all despatch; but it must be clearly understood that if the proofs are not completed fit for printing off within the time named, the Report will not be delayed beyond that period.

I have, &c.

George Coode, Esq.

Sir,

I HAVE the honour to receive your letter of this day.

I lose no time in informing you that it is perfectly convenient for me to superintend the printing of my papers, and that there will be no delay or difficulty on my part in getting them ready for distribution within the time you mention, namely, as I understand, three weeks from the present time, and that I am very desirous of realising his Lordship's purpose in this respect.

In

In order, then, that no part of this time may be lost, I respectfully request of you that you will give the directions to the Queen's printers, to which your letter adverts.

I do not now detain you with the observations to which other parts of your letter require a more particular reply.

I have, &c.

Dear Sir,

COULD you send me proofs of what you are printing for the last Report of the Statute Law Board? No delay shall take place in returning them to you.

Yours, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
9 May 1854.

Dear Sir,

I HAVE your letter of yesterday, requesting copies of the proofs of my papers; I was, if I had not received your letter, about to write to you on the subject.

On the 27th April, immediately that I received your letter of that date, and at the same time that I sent my acknowledgment of it to you, I wrote to the Queen's printers, stating my expectations that they would receive your instructions to proceed with my papers, describing the difficulty in getting them prepared by the time fixed by the Lord Chancellor, and asking, in consequence, that as soon as they had your directions they would allow some one to wait on me, with whom I could arrange for the most effectual despatch.

I wrote again to the latter effect on the 28th.

On the 29th (Saturday) I received a note from Mr. Scott, appointing the next Monday, the 1st of May, at four o'clock, to call on me. I waited at home for him till half-past seven, and in vain. On Tuesday I received another note from him, excusing himself for not calling, and appointing four o'clock on Wednesday (3d May). He came in the afternoon of Wednesday, and I believe I made him perfectly understand my views as to the way in which both I and the printer could proceed most rapidly and safely with our work. He was satisfied that it could not be done in the time allowed, and was to seek to see you on that point; but he undertook positively that I should have the small quantity of rather less than half a sheet, which was necessary to be in hand first, in order to check all the references throughout the work, by Friday afternoon (5th May).

Up to this moment (Tuesday, 9th, 11 A.M.), I have received neither proof nor explanation.

Thus, out of the three weeks which the Lord Chancellor allowed me for the performance of my work, 12 days have elapsed without an opportunity to myself to do one hour's work upon it. It was necessary for my credit that I should inform his Lordship of these facts, and that I should submit to his Lordship the reason for the delay which must occur in my completion of the undertaking, which involved, as he imposed it on me, the utmost possible exertion, and has now become manifestly impossible. Since Mr. Ker interfered with the printing of my papers, and put an end to the most satisfactory relation in which I stood with the Queen's printers for above 20 years, it has become impossible for me to attempt, with any hope of success, to procure any facilitation of any work of mine in their hands; I must therefore look to yourself to procure for me the means, through them, of making any progress at all with my work; and it was to solicit your intervention that I proposed to write to you, independently of the occasion given by your last letter.

I shall take care to forward to you, directly that I receive it, a copy of any proof sent to me, and I shall not have any occasion to trouble you to send it back to me.

I remain, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,

Dear Sir, 10 May 1854.

I RECEIVED just now, at five minutes to five, P.M., some proof of my papers, containing but one page and three quarters of what Mr. Scott on Wednesday last promised to furnish me on Friday last, with one page and a quarter of the matter wholly useless at present, and five pages of tables equally useless at present.

None of the matter that I have looked at has been read with the manuscript. Practically I am till this time without a line of proof upon which I can proceed with my work. Thus one fortnight out of the three weeks allowed me by the Lord Chancellor has already elapsed, in spite of my strenuous exertions, without the possibility of my doing one minute's effectual work.

Mr. Scott promised me six copies of a part of this matter which has to be dispersed, and he has sent me but one copy, which, as being unintelligible but to myself in its present state, and indispensable for my instant use if other matter comes to hand, I do not send to you, but I have written for a duplicate, and will send that immediately I receive it.

Being subjected to these obstacles, I take the liberty of informing you of them, inasmuch as, being made by Mr. Ker's conduct, I can see no way, but through yourself, to cause them to be removed.

I remain, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

Dear Sir, House of Lords, 11 May 1854.

IN reply to your two letters, I beg to state that I have seen Mr. Scott, and understood from him that the difficulty in furnishing you with proofs arises from the skill requisite for deciphering your MSS., and that he does not find it easy to provide hands for that purpose. He answers me that he is proceeding with as much expedition as possible, but that he fears it will be absolutely impossible for him to print all your papers within the time mentioned in my former letter for the printing of the Third Report. This Report, however, has been already so long delayed that the Lord Chancellor regrets he cannot postpone the presenting of it beyond the time already fixed for the purpose.

I am, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

Dear Sir, 12 May 1854.

1. IN order to enable you to judge of the validity of the excuse made by Mr. Scott for not making greater progress with the printing of my papers, namely, that a "difficulty arises from the skill requisite for deciphering my MS.," I send you the whole of the manuscript, which he has yet returned to me, and which has occupied the great establishment of the Queen's Printing Office 13 days to put into type.

You

You will see that it consists of little more than two pages of manuscript in my own hand, of five pages of tabular matter, fair copied, and of a chronological list of two pages and a half, beautifully copied, and as legible as print itself.

The only difficulty, if there were any, must be with my own writing. To test this, I have got a young lady to read it through, and who did so, with only one hesitation, namely, as to the word "universally," which she doubted about, and said "unusually," but which she immediately corrected on reading it with the following words; I have shown it to two compositors since, and they both assert that there is not the least difficulty or justification for delay in any part of it; and that, on the contrary, they consider it a very legible manuscript indeed.

I must add my assertion that, during 20 years' experience of the Queen's printers, they have put up for me without objection, and with alacrity and promptitude, and accuracy vast quantities of my MS. incomparably less legible than any now in their hands, and greatly more confused by interpolation and correction; and that it is only since August last that they even made any excuse on any ground whatever for delay, while since that time almost every kind of absurd excuse has been offered for frustrating every effort I have made to proceed with my work.

You, however, will sufficiently judge by inspection whether the quantity of matter I enclose you is what they should have done in compliance with your directions to them, and whether the difficulty involved is such as to justify their little progress.

If their excuse were just in this respect, it would still have to be explained why the proof sent to me has not been read according to invariable custom with the manuscript. The proof sent is wholly unconformable with the copy, and is in such a state as to double or treble the labour which ought justly to fall to me in the correction of the proofs; and will make, if they are allowed to persevere in evading their duty and casting it on me, the work I too rashly undertook, on the demand of the Lord Chancellor, to perform in three weeks, a very heavy labour for two months.

Again, if there was any excuse for this, what excuse can Mr. Scott have for the most unusual course of sending only one copy of the proof, when he himself suggested the necessity of my having six, and expressly undertook, to me, with the manuscript under his eyes, to let me have six proofs of at least six times as much matter on Friday last?

In all this I see plainly a determination that I shall not be allowed to do my work, and against this determination I have no protection unless in the Lord Chancellor himself; and it is with the view of placing myself and my work solemnly under his protection that I make these facts known to you, and solicit of you that you will inform his Lordship of the tenor of this representation.

2. In reference to the observations in the latter part of your letter of yesterday, that the Third Report has been so long delayed that the Lord Chancellor cannot postpone the presenting of it beyond the time already fixed, namely, as I understand, beyond Thursday next, I beg to be permitted to make for my own personal protection a few remarks.

Whatever delay there may have been, his Lordship will admit not to have been mine. The matter now in the printers' hands ought to have been printed eight months ago, and was only stopped by Mr. Ker's intervention. It was directly urged on his Lordship's attention immediately after the announcement in the Queen's Speech by my letter of the 1st of February last, when his Lordship, by your letter of the 3d of February, declined to have it then printed. Finally, I placed it in his Lordship's hands on the 3d of April last, and received it back on the 27th, since which date my efforts and anxiety have been incessant to have it proceeded with, and have been fruitless by no fault or omission of mine.

His Lordship alone will judge whether the Report should or should not be delayed for my papers.

But in any case I rely on him to do me justice, and, if the Report be presented without my papers, that he will prevent any such false representation with regard to them as is involved in Mr. Ker's First and Second Reports in their references to my Digest, and will cause it to be truly signified to the public that my papers were, two-thirds of them, in print, and the whole of them prepared, many months ago, and offered to his Lordship at the beginning of the Session, and finally placed in his Lordship's hands on the 3d April.

3. One other request I have to make: I gladly undertook to prepare these papers, on his Lordship's expression of his pleasure, in three weeks; for this purpose I have kept myself, knowing that the task was a difficult one, from all other engagements; I counted, as a matter of course, on at least a reasonable progress on the part of the printers. By their delay, even if they should henceforth proceed so rapidly and accurately, I have still the full three weeks' work before me. If they should proceed as hitherto, it is most likely to spread over six months.

It must be obvious to you that this protraction of my labour is most injurious to myself, whom it prevents from entering on other work with undivided energy; and I trust that you will, whatever be the determination as to my papers accompanying the Report, use your authority with the printers to urge them to proceed promptly with my papers, and to give me all the facilities which it is usual to afford to persons engaged in such work as mine on behalf of the public.

I have, &c.
(signed) George Coode.

P.S.—I shall be obliged to you if, so soon as the Lord Chancellor has seen my MS., you will return it to me.

G. C.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
Dear Sir, 15 May 1854.

I SEND you herewith the proofs received from the Queen's printers on Saturday evening; they amount to about 29 folio pages.

I have evidently to thank you for an intervention which is at least successful in obtaining a reasonable quantity of proof from the printers.

But it will now be quite apparent to you that if they can, as they have done, under the impulse received from you, supply me with 18 pages in the two days intervening between the 10th and the 12th instant, and with 29 pages in the next day, or 47 pages in three days, there could have been no ground for the pretence that in the preceding 12 days they could only supply $3\frac{1}{2}$ pages.

The difference of a quarter of a page per day produced under the insidious influences to which I have been subjected for a year, and of 16 pages a day under the earnest and honest influence of yourself and of the Lord Chancellor—a rate of progress as 64 to 1—represents, perhaps, very fairly the progress in all other respects which would have been made in his Lordship's work, if it had all been proceeded with under his direct protection, or under any superintendent having loyal purposes.

I have, &c.
The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,
Dear Sir, 16 May 1854.

AFTER writing my letter to you yesterday, the proofs which accompany this were delivered here at 10 minutes to 11, at night.

I enclose you likewise the MS. of this matter, upon which a fortnight exactly has been spent; you will see that the greater part is in beautiful fair copy, on mathematical paper; making it impossible for any printer's apprentice to justify the least error as to the degree of indentation, or a single letter or comma: when you have looked at it you will oblige me by returning it, as it is necessary for me in proceeding with the correction of the proof.

I must add one observation. This MS., which you will find so beautifully copied, has not been done by official assistance; I have had no assistance of clerk or messenger since August last, and have been obliged to use the services of my children, or to pay for other service of the kind whenever I have required it.

I have, &c.
The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

Dear Sir, House of Lords, 16 May 1854.

The Lord Chancellor having desired me to send the proofs, which I received yesterday, to Mr. Ker for his observations, I have to send you a memorandum on the subject of your introduction, which I have received this day from him.

As, whatever may be the facts of the case, it would be clearly inexpedient that there should be any contested matter introduced into the Report and its Appendix presented to Parliament, I think you will see that it is better to omit the passage of which Mr. Ker complains.

Believe me, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

I beg to return your proofs and MSS.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,

Dear Sir, 7 August 1854.

I need not remind you of the subject of your letter to me of the 11th of May, further than to state that the proofs referred to in it were not, to the extent of even a third of the whole, sent to me by the time when, by the direction of the Lord Chancellor, the entire papers were to have been printed off; that I have not yet received the whole of the proofs; and that the first and most important part of the proofs were sent to me in a state of incorrectness such as is without precedent in all my experience, and for the most part required more pains on my part than were involved in the original preparation of the matter, and, in short, have at the least quadrupled my fairly calculated labour.

As I had already had a bitter experience of the results of allowing myself to be drawn into controversy while engaged in the work of the Statute Law Commission, I resolved, in this instance, to avoid it until it could be engaged in without prejudice to the progress of my labours. I have, therefore, thus far taken without remonstrance the proofs as sent to me; have submitted without remark to all irregularities; have allowed the interruptions and interferences by Mr. Ker to pass thus far unnoticed; and have persevered, in despite of all temptations, and of the discouragements and obstacles put in my way, in resisting these concerted distractions, and in making good by my own unaided labour all deficiencies.

I have now finished for the press all the matter of which the printers have supplied me proof.

While engaged as I have described, I received a letter from you, containing a "note by Mr. Ker on Mr. Coode's proof," calculated to divert me from my work by leading me into a long discussion. I propose, in a subsequent letter to the present, to take up the matter of Mr. Ker's note.

But what now immediately presses is the subject of two letters I received from Mr. Scott, of the Queen's printers' office, on the 12th and on the 19th of June, of which the following are copies:

(Copy.)

"Mr. Scott begs leave to inform Mr. Coode that he has been instructed by Mr. Spring Rice 'not to print anything, by way of Appendix or otherwise, to the Third Report, unless it be previously authorised by Mr. Ker.' In pursuance of the above, Mr. Scott submitted the copy now returned, together with the last orders for Acts, to Mr. Ker, who declined to give any order on the subject, and 'requested Mr. Coode to be informed that, if he wishes to proceed, he must get the authority of the Lord Chancellor.' Mr. Coode will therefore be pleased to instruct Mr. Scott upon the course to be adopted."

(Copy.)

"Mr. Scott presents his compliments to Mr. Coode, and, in forwarding the accompanying Act, begs most respectfully to state, that he cannot execute any further orders without the authority of the Lord Chancellor or Mr. Spring Rice."

These letters refer to the papers I was preparing under the express sanction of the Lord Chancellor—the matter sent back to me:

Firstly, the register of statutes, a most material part of the operation, as every person conversant with the work of compiling or digesting a body of law well knows, and as my introductory papers more particularly show, in relation to the very matter in hand. Nine-tenths of this was already in type, and a portion of it was submitted, in type, to the Lord Chancellor, in the papers which you returned to me on the 27th of April, with the Lord Chancellor's instructions to proceed to prepare it for the press.

Secondly, certain forms given by statutes digested in my papers, indispensable to their intelligibility, completeness, and utility.

These, with the rest, were the very matter which the Lord Chancellor had expressly authorised me to prepare. The interference with the printing of them, the prohibition to print anything, "unless previously authorised by Mr. Ker," was a rescission of the Lord Chancellor's already expressed directions.

As I have now advanced to the end of the materials supplied to me, the completion of the whole of the matter now only requires the completion of these proofs. I have, then, to request of you that you will direct the Queen's printers to furnish me with the residue of the matter already supplied under the Lord Chancellor's directions, and to complete this work according to the directions you have already given to them.

I remain, &c.

Dear Sir, House of Lords, 8 August 1854.

I HAVE shown your letter of the 7th instant to the Lord Chancellor, and his Lordship desires me to say that if Mr. Bellenden Ker certifies that the papers which you wish to be printed are part of the work which is within the scope of the Statute Law Commission, his Lordship will give the necessary authority to the Queen's printers to proceed with the press.

I am, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

Dear Sir, 9 August 1854.

I HAVE just now received your letter of yesterday's date, in which you inform me that, if Mr. Bellenden Ker certifies that the papers which I wish to be printed are part of the work which is within the scope of the Statute Law Commission, the Lord Chancellor will give the necessary authority to the Queen's printers to proceed with the proof.

When, at the Lord Chancellor's request, after my engagement in the Statute Law Commission had expired, I undertook to correct these papers for the press, I took occasion clearly to express to his Lordship my understanding that I was no longer subject to Mr. Ker's control or intervention. The Lord Chancellor did not afford me any indication that his view or pleasure was in any respect at variance with my understanding; but he authorised me to proceed with the work, which, in the belief that I was now under his Lordship's direct protection, I gladly took again in hand, and prosecuted with unrelenting industry and no inconsiderable sacrifice to its completion, as announced to his Lordship in my letter of the 7th instant.

I have never lost a fair occasion for bringing to the Lord Chancellor's knowledge my experiences of Mr. Ker's personal malevolence towards myself, nor of making his Lordship acquainted, in plain terms, with Mr. Ker's practice of imposing degrading and impossible conditions; so that, while affecting to forward a work, he is effectually frustrating it.

In the present instance, I am not informed whether the Lord Chancellor is, as on all former occasions where I have solemnly appealed to his Lordship for justice against Mr. Ker, again guided by Mr. Ker's own inimical counsels; but

I am

I am compelled in self-protection to say, that, unless I quite misunderstand the purport of your letter, it has exactly the same character as all the rest of the proceedings advised by Mr. Ker against myself.

For me to apply to Mr. Ker for the certificate his Lordship requires involves not merely the personal degradation of myself, and the certainty of renewed insult, but it would also assuredly be encountered with a manœuvre which must dismiss me—me mortified, and my effort bootless; and for which he has already prepared the execution by his refusal to be responsible for the printing of these very papers.

With the greatest anxiety to be relieved from the further oppression of this work, and the utmost readiness to submit myself in all possible things to the Lord Chancellor's pleasure, I find myself utterly incapable of doing this thing which his Lordship now appears to require at my hands.

I am in all matters ready to throw myself unreservedly on his Lordship's own mercy; I now supplicate that he will extend to me some little of that justice of which he is the chief and honoured administrator.

These papers are, as his Lordship well knows, no proper part of the Statute Law Commission; they were designed and nearly completed for a definite practical purpose, in which the consolidation of the law had a merely secondary consideration. I have all along represented this orally, in letters, and in my printed papers of August 1853. It was on this account that I reluctantly granted them to Mr. Ker's importunity, and only acquiesced upon his assurance of the Lord Chancellor's personal desire for them, which to me was irresistible. I have since spent incalculable labour upon them, submitting all the while to indescribable annoyance and persecutions, and, in despite of every discouragement, have arrived at the end of my part of my work; and his Lordship now informs me that I must obtain from Mr. Ker a certificate that the work is within the scope of the Statute Law Commission.

Mr. Ker, if he were the conscientious adviser of his Lordship, and as well disposed to myself as he is inimical, would hesitate to grant such a certificate. The work is not such as to justify such a certificate; it is not by any authority under the Commission that the work could be connected with it; nothing but the Lord Chancellor's own supreme authority in the subject could have either obtained the work for the Commission, or can now give effectual countenance to it.

But I humbly submit to his Lordship that it is not now a question whether they are within the scope of the Commission; they are not so; but they are what his Lordship, with a personal knowledge of the matter, the manner and the form, with my papers also before him, elaborately describing their objects and the mode and details of their execution, has by his original direction and many subsequent acts induced me to complete and place in his Lordship's hands.

This, I humbly submit, is alone decisive of the propriety of printing them, and is a matter wholly and solely within the competence of his Lordship alone.

At all events I hope his Lordship will have a regard to my position with relation to Mr. Ker, and will not require of me that I should apply to Mr. Ker for a false certificate.

I would willingly entertain the hope that I may put another interpretation on his Lordship's announcement to me, namely, that his Lordship will himself, and on his own account, obtain from Mr. Ker whatever information he may require of him. Mr. Ker has had all the proofs, as I have had them myself; he can satisfy his Lordship that the papers are what his Lordship required at my hands. If his Lordship thinks fit to do this, it is a matter which I am not entitled to interfere in, or even to know, and would not presume to question.

But if it be his Lordship's meaning that I am to apply to Mr. Ker for the certificate in question, I must, with the greatest pain and regret, and with the most unbounded submission to his Lordship's pleasure in everything reconcilable with a decent self-respect, most humbly beg of his Lordship that he will excuse me from a moral impossibility.

I am, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

Dear Sir, House of Lords, 10 August 1854.

I HAVE to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterday's date.

It is obviously impossible that the Lord Chancellor should himself state what papers are either within the scope of the late Statute Law Commission, or whether they are parcel of the papers the printing of which he himself authorised.

This duty he was obliged to delegate to Mr. Ker, who had the regulation of the other proceedings of the Commission.

Whatever your understanding may have been at the time you undertook the work of correcting the press, the Lord Chancellor's silence on the subject cannot be supposed to imply acquiescence in your view, which involved an entire change in the frame of the original Board.

His Lordship desires me to say he regrets that you should feel it difficult to comply with the terms mentioned in my letter of the 8th instant, but, under the circumstances, he can adopt no other course than to decline to authorise the printing of any papers unless upon the above terms.

I remain, &c.

George Coode, Esq. (signed) W. C. Spring Rice.

13, Victoria-street, Westminster,

Dear Sir, 11 August 1854.

I HAVE just received your letter of the date of yesterday.

To state with precision and proper proof what is requisite in reply would involve additions of copies of Mr. Ker's, and every correspondence and explanation upon them, the making of which would occupy so much time as to prevent me from replying whilst there is yet a chance of my reply being useful; I will therefore confine myself, for the present, to a rapid and summary statement; but I will, if this proves insufficient, prepare one in all the requisite detail, with all the necessary justifications of my positions appended.

Before I go to the main subject, you will allow me to set myself right in respect of a remark in your letter which appears to be used as the cause for the Lord Chancellor's conclusion. You observe that, "whatever my understanding may have been at the time I undertook the work of correcting the proofs, the Lord Chancellor's silence on the subject cannot be supposed to imply acquiescence in my view, which involved an entire change in the frame of the original Board." Upon this I have only to say that you turn against me the decency of my language to his Lordship, and that you assume that when I spoke of my "understanding" of a fact, I spoke as of my mere understanding, and not as of a real fact; but you make it necessary for me to remind you that it was an actual fact, and not a mere segment of any "understanding" that was referred to by me; that at the time in question (in the month of April last), the Statute Law Commission had actually expired; that my engagements under it (as was indeed signified to him in a letter I had the honour to receive from yourself at about the same date) had ceased; that Mr. Ker's authority in matters in which he had authority (this, however, being no such matter) had come to its end; that all this being so, no view of mine could possibly involve any change, whether entire or partial, in the frame of the Board, which had wholly ceased to have an existence, and was entirely functum officio; and I did assume that his Lordship would recognise facts within his cognisance, and which nobody could question; and I submit now that I was justified, by all the rules of life and business, in my expectation, that if his Lordship intended that I should engage in another labour, subject to arrangements at variance with the true and the known state of facts, he would have favoured me with an expression of his pleasure, and would, perhaps, in a matter of so much moment (at least to myself), have indulged me in an opportunity of judging of the hard conditions to which he purposed to subject me, so that while there was yet time for deliberation and explanation, I might have saved his Lordship from the course of imposing on me ex post facto conditions irreconcilable on my part with truth or honesty. I submit further, that, in the absence of so easy, obvious and natural a course on the part of his Lordship, my conclusion that, in obeying his commands and engaging in another task, I was thenceforth acting under his Lordship's direct authority and protection, and subject only to his sense of right, was a proper, just, and respectful conclusion. At all events, it will be plain to you on reconsideration, that it did not involve any reconstruction of the frame-work of the defunct Board; and that if, as appears by your letter, this consideration is the groundwork for his Lordship's adhering to the conditions he has imposed on me, he will now see the necessity of withdrawing them.

Lordship's

And his Lordship will also, on reconsideration, perceive, that there is no such difficulty in the matter as your letter describes. His Lordship is under no such necessity, as your letter describes, of himself "stating that the papers are within the scope of the late Statute Law Commission, or whether they are parcel of the papers the printing of which he himself authorised." He will, on the contrary, perceive, what I have already ventured to suggest, that it is most easy, if his Lordship desires any opinion of Mr. Ker's on the matter, for his Lordship to command that gentleman's assistance, he having all the means which I have myself of judging of the whole of the matter really in question, and will, in his clemency, perceive that it is infinitely more fitting that his Lordship should obtain the ready service of Mr. Ker, than that he should persevere in condemning me to forego the just results of all my labours, or to attempt to suborn the testimony of Mr. Ker to a manifest and declared falsehood.

I still entertain the hope that his Lordship may see the justice of my representation, and may act accordingly, and I shall feel most grateful from being relieved from the inflictions which his Lordship's perseverance would impose upon me. I am, therefore, almost afraid to pursue the Digest further, lest I may seem to assume that his Lordship will (though it is inconceivable to me that he can do so) adhere to his first demands. It is only the fear of the irrecoverable loss of the last opportunity to obtain a just determination that impels me to proceed to a still more disagreeable branch of the subject.

His Lordship's imposition of a condition of the printing of my papers, that I shall do a thing impossible in itself, or only to become possible by the equal immorality of Mr. Ker and of myself, must, of course, be submitted to by myself, who has no resource against his Lordship's pleasure as only a circumlocutory but absolute refusal of the printing of my papers.

But this decision deprives me of the just fruit of all my labours of many years. If his Lordship knows anything of my character or conduct, it may include this, that all the labours which I have voluntarily undertaken through my life have been undertaken and persevered in with a very unusual disregard of emolument or vulgar honours; that my conduct is impeachable and impeached for this kind of disregard of my family's interest; but that I have in all things had more regard to the general usefulness of my labours, and to the honourable credit derivable from useful exertions, than to all other considerations.

If his Lordship prevents the publication of my papers, he deprives me of both these personal rewards, of long, strenuous, and destructive exertions.

There would still remain in the interest of those who depend on me my pecuniary claim, which I cannot abandon.

His Lordship has already in his hands all the materials for his guidance in this matter. The printed papers in Mr. Ker's First Report (pp. 71 to 79) describe the work as first recommended to Government and the public in the year 1842. The printed correspondence with the Poor Law Board, in the year 1851 (of which I enclose another copy), was in his Lordship's hands before I was engaged, and it shows the nature and object of the work, the details of its contents, and the mode of its execution, and the progress of the work at the time of the correspondence, and also the terms upon which it was proposed to complete it, namely, for 630*l.* (p. 3.)

With all the matter in his Lordship's hands and in Mr. Ker's, Mr. Ker at various times solicited of me that I should allow the Digest to appear as part of the transactions of the Commission. I described to him its intended uses and operation, devised for the practical use of Poor Law Officers in the first place, and only consequentially for the use of the Legislature, or for those who would consolidate or amend the law. Mr. Ker thought my difficulties not decisive of the matter; urged further various advantages to myself in relieving him from the burden of the cost of printing, and in facilitating my payment by the Treasury; and, finally, by urging his Lordship's desire, obtained my acquiescence in the proposal of himself and his Lordship, opposed to my own first inclinations, that I should complete the Digest for the publication as part of the work of the Statute Law Commission.

His Lordship will find references to these facts in Mr. Ker's letter to him of the 20th of May 1853, and in Mr. Ker's First Report of Proceedings (pp. 4 and 5).

As I have done my work, completing it up to this year, and placed it at his Lordship's disposal; as it is done in accordance with all the terms and conditions of its performance; as it is rendered useless by no act of mine, but solely by an exertion of his Lordship's pleasure, his Lordship will not fail to see that my claim is complete, to be paid for my work.

As I have refused all other employment while engaged on it, and as I depend solely on the work of my hands, I trust that his Lordship will see the propriety of his signifying, before he leaves town, to the Treasury, his Lordship's pleasure that I should be paid for my work without delay.

I remain, &c.

The Hon. W. C. Spring Rice. (signed) George Coode.

* This Class comprehends Children attending Charity or Free Schools, for whose Instruction no payments are made by their Parents or Relatives.

(b) Pontypool Union.—The Clerk to the Guardians states that he has no means of obtaining the information.

(a) This number includes all patients receiving medical diet, and all patients occupying beds in the infirmary, infirm or lunatic wards, but does not include patients daily applying at the infirmary with coughs, colds, bowel complaints, pains in the limbs, &c., amounting from 20 to 50 daily, and who are supplied with medicines at the surgery.

(b) The proportion of deaths to the total number of cases may lead to the assumption that some epidemic has prevailed, but such is not the case, the majority of deaths (say 5 to 1) are not house-cases, they are cases brought in from the out-door districts, and numbers of them are within a few hours or days of their death on their first admission; the deaths in the workhouse or infirmary are chiefly from phthisis or consumption.

(c) Includes a district comprising an area of 3,668 acres; the salary for the respective duties is not apportioned.

(d) Exclusive of old and infirm.

(e) The medical care of the out-door poor, and the drugs for their use, are included in these amounts.

(f) Exclusive of the number (162) in the workhouse on the 25th March 1855, and admitted previous to that day.

(g) Consisting of lunatic and vaccination fees.

(h) Including medicine and attendance to out-door poor.

(i) Including 110 children at Plashet School.

(j) In addition to this number in the infirmary, there are about 220 per week in the workhouse under medical treatment, but it is impossible to give an accurate return of the number per annum.

(k) Notwithstanding repeated applications have been made for this information, the officers of St. Pancras have failed to make a return.

(l) Including 845 in the workhouse on the 25th March 1855.

(m) Including 252 under treatment on the 25th March 1855.

(n) Including 225 in the workhouse on 25th March 1855.

(o) Including 218 in the workhouse on 25th March 1855.

(p) Including 391 in the workhouse on 25th March 1855.

(q) Including 488 in the workhouse on 25th March 1855.

(r) Including cost of drugs to out-door poor.

(s) It is impossible to give the number with any approach to accuracy; considerable numbers of patients attend at the dispensary whose cases are not reported in any way.

(t) This number includes a great many cases of chronic incurable diseases discharged from the neighbouring hospitals, and many are brought in dying from their abodes.

(u) This salary includes the duties as medical officer of an out-door district.

(x) This is the daily average.

(y) This amount includes cost of drugs for out-door poor.

(z) Exclusive of board, lodging and washing.

The number of deaths in the course of the year were two, and which is about the usual average.

POOR LAW (GILBERT'S UNIONS).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 2 June 1856;—for,

A RETURN "of the UNIONS and SINGLE PARISHES included in the several Parliamentary Returns in which the POOR were managed under the Provisions of the Act 22 Geo. 3 (Gilbert's Act), which, since the 1st day of March 1837, have been Dissolved, and become subject to the Provisions of the Poor Law Amendment Act; stating the grounds in each case on which such Dissolution has taken place, and whether with the consent of a Majority of the Guardians or otherwise:"

"And, COPY of all CORRESPONDENCE since the 3d day of April 1856 between the VISITOR and GUARDIANS of such Unions and Single Parishes and the POOR LAW BOARD, relative to the Clauses in the Poor Law Amendment Bill, for their compulsory Dissolution."

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, 11 June 1856.

COURTENAY, Secretary.

(Sir George Brooke Pechell.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 13 June 1856.

Brassington Union, formed under the Provisions of the 22 Geo. 3 (Gilbert's Act), comprised the following Parishes:

|---|---|---|
| Brassington. | Middleton by Wirkworth. | Osliston and Thurvaston. |
| Bradbourn. | Sturston. | Turnditch. |
| Bradley. | Hognaston. | Hulland Ward. |
| Hopton. | Kneveton. | Idridgehay and Alton. |
| Heage. | Callow. | Mercaston. |
| Kirk Ireton. | Alderwasley. | Shottle, and | | Muggington. | Hollington. | Postern. |
| Carrington. | | |

Dissolved by an Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, dated 15 March 1837, with the consent of a majority of the guardians. The several parishes were subsequently placed in the Belper and Ashbourne Unions, formed under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76.

Barrow-upon-Soar Union, also formed under the Provisions of the 22 Geo. 3 (Gilbert's Act), comprised the following Parishes:

|---|---|---|
| Barrow-upon-Soar. | Mountsorrel, South. | Swithland. |
| Barkby. | Quorndon. | Syston. |
| Belgrave. | Queniborough. | Thrussington. |
| Beeby. | Rearsley. | Thurmaston. |
| Cossington. | Rothley. | Ulverscroft. |
| Hathern. | Seagrave. | Wilmeswould. |
| Keyham. | Sileby. | Thurnby. |
| Long Whatton. | South Croxton. | Thurcaston. |
| Mountsorrel, North. | | |

Dissolved by an Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, dated 7 March 1837, with the consent of a majority of the guardians. The several parishes were subsequently placed in the Barrow-upon-Soar and other Unions, formed under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76.

The grounds of the dissolutions in the above cases appear to have been the desirability of forming other more convenient unions, and introducing the system of administering relief to the poor prescribed by the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76, in the place of that prescribed by Gilbert's Act.

No unions formed under Gilbert's Act have since been dissolved with the consent of the guardians; but in the year 1845, certain parishes which had been alleged to form part of the Alstonefield (Gilbert's) Union, having been ascertained not to be legally united therewith, were incorporated, under Orders of the Poor Law Commissioners, in the Ashbourne Union, and other unions formed under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76. The Orders of the Poor Law Commissioners were questioned by proceedings in the Court of Queen's Bench, and held to be valid.

In 1851 the parishes which had been associated under the name of the Bedworth (Gilbert's) Union, were in like manner ascertained not to be legally constituted as a union, and were placed, by Orders of the Poor Law Board, in unions formed under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76.

In 1854 the several parishes and townships which had been associated under the name of the Great Ouseburn (Gilbert's) Union having been ascertained to be not legally united, were, by Orders of the Poor Law Board, formed into a union, under 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76, by the name of the Great Ouseburn Union, or placed in other unions previously formed.

In 1846 the parish of Farnham, which had adopted the provisions of Gilbert's Act, was, with several other parishes, formed by an Order of the Poor Law Commissioners into a union, under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76, under the name of the Farnham Union.

In

In 1853 the township of Saddleworth, which had formerly adopted the provisions of Gilbert's Act, but had for a long period ceased to appoint guardians, was, by an order of the Poor Law Board, placed under a Board of Guardians, under the 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76.

The workhouse is held on lease for 21 years from April 1853, but the lease is ipso facto void if the union is dissolved.

I am, &c.

By Order of the Board,
4 June 1856. James Corder, Clerk to the Guardians.

Places marked in this Table thus * are under Local Acts; all the other Places are in Union, or entirely under the New Poor Law. Law charges are included in the above, because it was found that Mr. Weale had included them in his Report on the Cost of Relief in Birmingham. The average Cost per Head on the Population in the above Unions and Parishes included in this Return for 1854 is 5*s*. 10½*d*., and for 1855 is 6 s. 9¾ d. In the Year 1854, the Number of Places in which the average Cost per Head on the Population was below Birmingham was five; viz. Bradford, King's Norton, Medway Union, Walsall, and Wolverhampton. In the Year 1855, the Number of Places in which such average Cost was below Birmingham was three; viz. King's Norton, Walsall, and Wolverhampton. The Expenditure for 1855, in the Parish of Birmingham, includes the "pauper pressure" which took place in the last quarter of that year.

POOR LAW (BIRMINGHAM AND ASTON).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 29 February 1856;—for,

A COPY of "REPORT by R. Weale, Esquire, to the POOR LAW BOARD, on the State of PAUPERISM in Birmingham and Aston."

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, 31 March 1856.

GRENVILLE C. L. BERKELEY, Secretary.

REPORT on Comparative State of PAUPERISM in the Parishes of Aston and Birmingham.

My Lords and Gentlemen, 18 January 1856.

IN June 1840 I addressed a Report to the Poor Law Commissioners on the above subject, which was presented to the House of Commons, and on the 24th of July of the same year was ordered to be printed.

For the better understanding of that report, I premised—

1st. "That the town of Birmingham extends into Aston parish, the latter forming a suburb of at least one-fourth of the circumference of the town. According to the Census of 1831, the parish of Birmingham contained a population of 111,000; Aston about 32,000. The population then stood, and probably still is, in the proportion of 3 ½ to 1. Which of the two contains the greatest proportion of poor could not easily be determined; but there is no reason to suppose that fewer poor, either casual or settled, are to be found in the suburbs than in the centre of such a town as Birmingham, in proportion to the areas of each."

2d. "That the labouring poor of both are engaged in like employments, equally affected by any interruption of or vicissitudes in trade, and are not to be distinguished from each other in any point which can affect the comparison."

I afterwards anticipated an objection that might be raised to the comparison made in that report in the following paragraph:

"It may, perhaps, be well at the outset to anticipate an objection that may be raised to the comparison, from the fact that the parish of Aston, in addition to its manufacturing population, contains a considerable number of persons employed in agriculture, and that from that circumstance, a diminution of pauperism may be expected. Experience however has convinced me, that there is no foundation for this assumption, as I find that the expenditure, calculated upon the population, is very considerably greater in agricultural than in manufacturing unions; and on a comparison of the parish of Aston with the other parishes in the same union, all of which are agricultural, I find that while the average cost per head on the population of those parishes, for the year ending Lady-day 1840, amounts to 4 s. 5 ¼ d., in the parish of Aston it amounts only to 2*s.* 8½ d."

In that report it was shown that the weekly average number of paupers in the parish of Aston was 1,049, being rather more than 3 per cent. on the gross population of the parish; and that in the parish of Birmingham the average weekly number of paupers was 7,476, being nearly 7 per cent. on the gross population of the parish.

It was further shown that the expenditure for the relief of the poor was in Aston 4,366 l., being at the rate of 2 s. 8 ½ d. per head on the gross population of the parish, and in Birmingham 30,358 l., being at the rate of 5 s. 5 ½ d. per head.

The report contained several other statistical tables, which at this time it is unnecessary to refer to.

Before entering into the immediate subject of this report, I beg to draw your attention to the following facts.

The parish of Aston was incorporated into a union under the Poor Law Amendment Act, with four other parishes, in November 1836. The gross population of the union at that time was 36,635, and in 1851, 66,852; the population of the parish of Aston being 61,281.

The affairs of the union are managed by a Board of Guardians, constituted under the Poor Law Amendment Act; and the general order of the 21st of December 1844, prohibiting out-door relief to the able-bodied, is in force in the union.

The Aston union workhouse is nearly three miles from the populous part of the parish, and is capable of containing 360 inmates.

The affairs of the parish of Birmingham are managed by 108 guardians, elected under the provisions of a local Act passed in the 1st & 2d years of the reign of William the 4th; the guardians are elected triennially, and the churchwardens, and 12 overseers appointed under the Act, are ex officio members of the Board, and continue as such after they have ceased to hold office as overseers, till the next general election of guardians.

The workhouse for the parish of Birmingham is a large and commodious building, newly erected, and capable of containing 1,600 inmates, and is distant from the centre of the town about one mile and a half.

On the 16th day of January 1850, the Poor Law Board issued rules, orders, and regulations for the proceedings of the guardians, for the regulation of relief (including the out-door labour test order for the able-bodied male applicants), and for the government of the workhouse.

The greatly increased and increasing expenditure for the parish of Birmingham has again induced me to renew the comparison I formerly made, and to extend it to periods previous and subsequent to my report of June 1840, and to add a comparison of the rate of expenditure upon the assessable value of property in the two parishes at several periods. I have taken for this latter purpose the assessment for the property tax, as the nearest approximation to the correct value.

I have appended to this report a series of Tables, marked respectively, (A.), (B.), (C.), (D.), (E.), and (F.), and to these I beg to draw your attention.

Table (A.) The Table marked (A.) exhibits the expenditure of the two parishes from Lady-day 1840 to Lady-day 1855. From it you will learn that in Aston the largest expenditure was in 1845, when it amounted to 5,228 l., and in Birmingham in 1849, when it amounted to 54,318 l.

From 1849 to 1852 there was a decrease in the expenditure of both parishes. The expenditure for 1852, in Aston, amounted to 2,880 l., and in Birmingham to 26,102 l., the decrease in the latter parish being more than 100 per cent. as compared with the expenditure of 1849.

Since 1852, there has been a small increase in the expenditure for the parish of Aston, and at Lady-day last, the expenditure of that parish amounted to 3,907 l. The rise in the price of provisions will almost account for this increase. In the parish of Birmingham the increase has been far greater, the expenditure at Lady-day last amounting to 38,235 l., and since that period increasing at a rapid rate.

Table (B.) The Table marked (B.) shows the following results: that in the year ending Lady-day 1854, the average weekly number of paupers in the parish of Aston was 0·85 per cent. on the population of 1851, and in Birmingham 2·48, and that that in the year ending Lady-day last, the average proportions were 0·93 in Aston, and 3·21 in Birmingham.*

The Table marked (C.) shows the expenditure per head on the population of each parish for in-maintenance, out-relief, and all other expenses connected with relief to the poor, deducting from the parish of Birmingham workhouse loans repaid; and the result is as follows: Table (C.)

| | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|
| Aston | 1 | 3 ¼ |
| Birmingham | 4 | 4 ¾ † |

The Table marked (D.) exhibits the cost per head on the gross population of the two parishes, for the years 1803, 1813, 1821, 1831, 1841, 1851, and 1855, and shows the following results:— Table (D.)

| | | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1803: | Aston | 6 | 2 ⅛ |
| | Birmingham | 6 | 1 ¾ |
| 1813: | Aston | 9 | 7 |
| | Birmingham | 10 | 2 ¼ |
| 1821: | Aston | 6 | 8 ¼ |
| | Birmingham | 9 | 5 ¾ |
| 1831: | Aston | 5 | 2 ½ |
| | Birmingham | 8 | 4 ¾ |
| 1841: | Aston | 2 | 3 |
| | Birmingham | 4 | 11 ⅛ |
| 1851: | Aston | – | 11 ¾ |
| | Birmingham | 3 | 2 ½ |
| 1855: | Aston | 1 | 3 ¼ |
| | Birmingham | 4 | 4 ¾ |

The Table marked (E.) shows the rate in the pound on the property tax assessment, which would be required to make up the amount expended on the poor in each parish, in the years 1815, 1851, and 1855, respectively:— Table (E.)

| | | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1815: | Aston | 2 | 3 ¼ |
| | Birmingham | 2 | 7 ¾ |
| 1851: | Aston | – | 3 ½ |
| | Birmingham | – | 10 ¼ |
| 1855: | Aston | – | 4 ⅛ |
| | Birmingham | – | 11 ⅛ |

The Table marked (F.) shows the sum contributed out of the poor's rates in the parish of Birmingham, for the county and police rates, from Lady-day 1835 to 1855. I have been induced to append this table for the purpose of showing the large increase of expenditure out of the poor's rate for municipal purposes, from observations made to me from time to time by ratepayers, when speaking of the number and amount of poor's rates now paid by them, in comparison with the number and amount of rates paid by them at former periods. I believe they entertained the opinion that all the money levied upon them Table (F.)

* My report of 1840 showed that the weekly average of paupers to population was rather more than 3 per cent. in Aston, and nearly 7 per cent. in Birmingham.

† My report of June 1840 shows the expenditure per head on population to be, for—them by the poor rate was expended for purposes connected with relief to the poor, forgetting, or perhaps never having been informed, that a large portion of it is expended for municipal purposes.

| | s. | d. |

| Aston | 2 | 8 ½ |
| Birmingham | 5 | 5 ½ |

The comparisons I have brought under your notice are of a very startling character, and are well deserving the serious consideration of the guardians of the parish of Birmingham.

In my report of June 1840, I remarked,

"I know of no other cause than a more effective system of management to which can be attributed the difference that must present itself to your notice. Of this however I feel assured, that this contrast is not the effect of an oppressive system; but I am induced to believe, from an examination of the last table (to which I beg leave to call your attention), that the strict investigation to which the different appeals for relief are now subjected has prevented many fraudulent applications from being made; and what is more gratifying, I am led to hope that those habits of provident care and forethought, which the Poor Law Amendment Act was intended to engender, have been realised in some degree."

A very long and intimate acquaintance with the two parishes does not warrant me in retracting a syllable of this remark; it is as applicable now as when I made it; and so are the remarks with which I premised my then report, and which I have quoted at the commencement of this.

The guardians of the parish of Birmingham are at this time most anxious to remedy any defects existing in their present mode of administering relief; they have made provision for carrying out the out-door labour test order, and a committee is now sitting for the purpose of suggesting means of employing the inmates of the workhouse; and I have reason to hope, when their attention is drawn to the position of their parish, compared with that of Aston, they will endeavour to ascertain the cause of difference, and, as far as possible, apply a remedy.

I have, &c.

Poor Law Inspector.

Note.—In 1838 the borough of Birmingham was incorporated for municipal purposes, and in August 1839 an Act was passed for establishing a Police, till some questions touching the legality of the charter were decided, and the provisions of this Act were, by subsequent statutes, extended to October 1842, when the management of the Police devolved on the Town Council. Since August 1839 a very effective Police Force has been established; a Borough Gaol and Borough Lunatic Asylum erected; consequently the payment towards the borough rate out of the poor's rates has been very heavy, and in some years has exceeded the amount expended for the relief of the poor. In addition to the expenditure by the corporation of the sums contributed from the poor's rates, rates are levied under various Acts of Parliament, which yield a larger amount than that paid out of the poor's rates.

CORRESPONDENCE, &c. respecting the Erection of a New WORKHOUSE in the Preston Union.

No. 1.—LETTER from H. B. Farnall, Esq., Poor Law Inspector to the Poor Law Board.

Kettlethorpe Hall, Wakefield,
19 December 1855.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE the honour of transmitting to you the enclosed form of order of the Poor Law Board, which has been signed by 34 out of 64 guardians of the Preston Union, in the county of Lancaster;

In order to represent to you that it is expedient that some of the guardians of the poor of the said union should be empowered to give their consent in writing to purchase a piece of land and erect a workhouse thereon for the use of the said union, and also to the borrowing of a sum or sums of money for that purpose otherwise than at a meeting of the Board of Guardians of the said union.

I have, therefore, now to advise you to issue your order, directing that the ex-officio, or guardians of the poor of the said union, or any of them respectively, may sign and signify their consent to the purchase of a piece of land and the erection of the said workhouse; and also to the borrowing of a sum or sums of money for that purpose, otherwise than at some meeting of the Board of Guardians of the said union.

I annex a letter which I have this day received from the Chairman of the Board of Guardians of the Preston Union.

I have, &c.

Poor Law Inspector.

No. 2.—LETTER from the Poor Law Board to H. B. Farnall, Esq., Poor Law Inspector.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
Sir, 22 December 1855.

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, transmitting a form of order for the purchase or erection of a workhouse, with the signatures of 34 guardians of the Preston Union attached to the consent annexed thereto.

The Board desire to state that a sufficient number of signatures has been attached to the form, but that unfortunately the principal parts thereof have been left blank; so that it contains neither the name of the union, the number of the inmates which the workhouse is to hold, nor the cost which is to be incurred in building it.

The Board are therefore under the necessity of enclosing another similar form, which should be filled up, signed, and returned to them.

I am, &c.

No. 3.—LETTER from Christopher Ward, Esq., to the Poor Law Board.

My Lords and Gentlemen, Preston, 1 January 1856.

I THINK it my duty to inform you, as a member of the Preston Board of Guardians, of a document, containing a number of signatures, that will be sent to you shortly, if not already sent off, by T. B. Addison, Esq., chairman of our Board, for the purpose of having a new union workhouse, or Preston workhouse enlarged, and the means by which those signatures have been obtained. The document has been taken about privately for signature, and has been signed by ex-officio guardians, who never, up to this time, have attended our Board. There are other ex-officio guardians who have signed it, and have not attended the Board during the last 12 months at least.

I send this for your information and consideration, as to whether this document, so signed, can be considered an act of the Board, and whether such an important measure should be carried out without due notice being given to the Board, for their consideration of the subject and adoption.

I also enclose a list of ex-officio and elected guardians for the year 1855.

I am, &c.

No. 4.—LETTER from the Poor Law Board to Christopher Ward, Esq.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
9 January 1856.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the first instant, respecting the form of order which they propose to issue for the purpose of empowering the guardians of the Preston Union to purchase land and erect a workhouse thereon, and to inform you that they have, under the authority of 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76, s. 38, issued an order authorising any of the guardians to sign the necessary consent otherwise than at a meeting of the Board of Guardians.

I am, &c.
(signed) Courtenay,
Secretary.

No. 5.—LETTER from the Poor Law Board to J. Thackeray, Esq., the Clerk to the Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
Sir, 9 January 1856.

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to state, that having learnt from their inspector, Mr. Farnall, that the Guardians of the Preston Union have under their consideration a proposal to build a new workhouse for the Union, and that it would be convenient to some of the guardians if they were empowered to sign the necessary consent otherwise than at a meeting of the Board of Guardians, the Board have issued an order for that purpose, a copy of which is transmitted herewith; they also forward a form of the order, which they would be prepared to issue to authorise the guardians to purchase a site and build a workhouse thereon.

The Board request that you will cause the blanks in this proposed order and consent, numbered 1 and 2, to be filled up, agreeably to the directions marked in pencil in the margin thereof, and the signatures of a majority of the guardians to be attached to the form of consent, in the manner indicated by the headings of the two columns.

As there are 34 elective guardians, and apparently 25 ex-officio guardians for the Union, it will be necessary to obtain 30 signatures, to constitute a majority of the total number of the Board of Guardians.

I am, &c.
(signed) Courtenay, Secretary.

No. 6.—COPY of a Memorial from certain Ratepayers of the Preston Union to the Honourable the Poor Law Board, London.

THE humble Memorial of the undersigned Ratepayers of the Preston Union,

Showeth,

THAT in the opinion of your memorialists a new union workhouse is not required in Preston, and the more especially as the ratepayers are heavily taxed at present in carrying out the sewerage, waterworks, and cemetery for the town, and at the same time being less able to bear such burdens owing to the present dulness of trade and high price of provisions.

Your memorialists therefore pray your Honourable Board to withhold your sanction from an attempt which is now being made by a few ex-officio guardians, who are getting up a memorial to your Honourable Board for the erection of one; but in so doing are acting contrary to the wishes of the ratepayers and inhabitants at large.

And your memorialists will ever pray, &c.

Here follow the signatures of William Livesey, proprietor of the Preston Guardian, 28, Fishergate Hill, and 1,827 other Ratepayers.

No. 7.—LETTER from H. B. Farnall, Esq., to the Poor Law Board.

Poor Law Office, Whitehall,
27 February 1856.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE the honour of handing you the annexed paper* from the Preston Union, which, together with the note attached, I received from the chairman of that Union.

I beg to advise your Board to order and direct that the guardians of the poor of the said Union shall purchase a suitable piece of land, or suitable buildings, to be appropriated to the purpose of a workhouse for the common use of the said Union.

I am, &c.
(signed) H. B. Farnall,
Poor Law Inspector.

* The paper referred to is the consent of the Guardians, set forth at page 7 (No. 9.)

No. 8.—LETTER from the Poor Law Board to J. Thackeray, Esq., Clerk to the Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
Sir, 7 March 1856.

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to state that it is with much satisfaction that they have received through their inspector, Mr. Farnall, the form of order and consent to the erection of a new workhouse for the Preston Union, duly signed by a majority of the guardians, and to inform you that the Board have now issued the order under their hand and seal of office, and transmit to you a copy thereof enclosed. As it is now incumbent upon the guardians to make a selection of premises or a piece of land suitable for the site, which it is desirable should be of freehold tenure, the Board trust that they will see the necessity for taking proper steps for that purpose without delay. As soon as the site shall have been decided upon by the guardians, a short description of it should be forwarded to this office, and the Board should at the same time be informed of the probably cost thereof to enable them to issue a supplemental order, which will be necessary to confirm the purchase at the price to be agreed upon.

I am, &c.

Secretary.

No. 9.—COPY of an ORDER of the Poor Law Board, dated 6 March 1856.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Preston Union, in the County of Lancaster;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Divisions in which the said Union is situate; and to all others whom it may concern.

WE, the Poor Law Board, by and with the consent of a majority of the guardians of the poor of the Preston Union, in the county of Lancaster, testified in writing at the foot of a duplicate of this instrument, and in pursuance of the powers given in and by the statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct:—

1. That the guardians of the poor of the said union shall purchase a suitable piece of land or suitable buildings, to be hereafter agreed upon by the Board of Guardians of the said union, and confirmed by an order under the hand and seal of the Poor Law Board, to be appropriated to the purpose of a workhouse for the common use of the said union, and for such other purposes relating to the relief of the poor of the said union as the said guardians, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, shall direct.

2. That such workhouse shall be of a size sufficient to hold 12 hundred persons, men, women, and children, properly classified, and be built or altered according to such plan as the Poor Law Board shall approve (such approval to be testified by some writing under their hand and seal), subject, nevertheless, to such modifications thereof as they may thereafter direct.

3. That the cost of building or altering such workhouse shall not exceed the sum of 20,000 l.

4. That the sum of money to be paid for the purchase of the said land or premises, and the sum of money to be expended in building or altering such workhouse as aforesaid, or such part or parts of the said respective sums as may from time to time be required for the purposes aforesaid, may be borrowed by the said guardians, and be secured by a charge on the poor-rates of the parishes of the said union, in the manner provided by the statutes in that behalf; and we do authorise the said guardians to borrow the said sums, and charge such rates accordingly.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this 6th day of March, in the year 1856.

(signed) E. P. Bouverie, President.

(L. S.) Courtenay, Secretary.

WE,

We, the undersigned, being the majority of the guardians of the poor of the Preston Union, in the county of Lancaster, do hereby testify our consent to the purchase of a suitable piece of land or buildings, to be hereafter agreed upon, and confirmed by the order of the Poor Law Board, to be appropriated to the purpose of a workhouse for the said union, and that the said sum of money to be paid for the purchase of the said land or premises, and the sum of money to be expended in building or altering such workhouse, or such part or parts thereof as may be necessary, may be borrowed and secured as in the said order is mentioned. And we do hereby certify, that the said sum of 20,000 l. by the above order directed to be expended, is less than the average annual amount of the rates raised for the relief of the poor in the several parishes in the said union, for three years ending at Easter last.

Witness our hands, this 12th day of January, in the year 1856.

Here follow the signatures of 33 Guardians.

No. 10.—LETTER from Joseph Livesey, Esq., to the Poor Law Board.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

As a ratepayer in the Preston Union, having noticed that you have issued an order for building a new union workhouse, which order purports to be founded on an application from a majority of the guardians, signed "otherwise than at a meeting of the Board of Guardians," I beg most respectfully to ask information on the following points; and, in order that I may not be misunderstood, I will annex to each query my reasons for seeking information:

First. Was the "publicity" given to your order, dated January the 5th, by the clerk of the Preston Board of Guardians, and the clerk of the justices, equal to what is required by the 18th section of 4 & 5 Will. 4, cap. 76; and did you describe the "manner" in which this "publicity" was to be given, as appears to be required by the same section?

This section enacts, in reference to any order issued to any union by the Commissioners, that "before the same shall come into operation," it shall be sent "to the guardians of such union, or their clerk, and to the clerk to the justices for the petty sessions held for the division," and that those clerks are "required to keep and preserve, notify, and give publicity" to the same, "in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct;" and that if these officers "shall neglect to keep and preserve, notify, and give publicity to the same, in the mode prescribed or directed by the Commissioners," they shall be subject to a penalty "not exceeding 10 l., nor less than 40 s."

In reference to your order, by which the guardians were authorised to give their consent to a new union workhouse, "otherwise than at a meeting of the Board," I beg to state that beyond being read at one guardian meeting, no publicity whatever was given to it. On the part of the clerk of the justices, who is equally required to give publicity with the clerk of the union, all that he did was to receive it from the postman, and place in a drawer. When both clerks were asked why they had not given "publicity" to the order, "in such a manner as the Commissioners shall direct," their reply was, they had received no directions whatever as to publishing this order, or any other.

Secondly. Is not the power given to the Poor Law Board, by the 38th section of the said Act, to permit the guardians to act otherwise than at a Board, to be guided by circumstances; and does not the connexion in which the words stand, "except where otherwise ordered by the said Commissioners," indicate the nature of those circumstances, to meet which the Legislature granted this power? If so, does the state of the workhouse question in Preston come within that class of circumstances?

Acting as parties have recently done here, the decision of any Board of Guardians may at any time be upset, the absent having more power than those present, and those who never attend the Board being able to rescind the decisions of those who do all the work, provided they get your permission to act "otherwise than at a meeting of the Board." The Preston Union is a practical illustration. Satisfied that their present workhouses are full of capacity for all their in-door paupers, and for every purpose of classification, they have, year after year, decided not to erect a new one in their stead; yet, if your order is to take effect, you force them to erect a new house, although it is expressly stated, in the 25th section of the same Act, that the Poor Law Board have no power to expend more than 50 l. upon any workhouse without "the consent of a majority of the guardians." By a clandestine canvass, under your permissive order, the signatures of a majority have been obtained, consisting chiefly of the ex-officio guardians, about 20 of whom, out of 25, scarcely ever attend the meetings of the Board; and yet, if this secret proceeding is to be valid, the frequent decisions of the Preston Board of Guardians are to be upset. It is a principle unknown in the proceedings of any other public body to rescind the decisions of regular meetings by minorities being allowed to start a private canvass, and, in the long run, to obtain a majority by including the names of those who do not choose to attend the meetings.

It may be urged that the words, "except where otherwise ordered by the Commissioners," contain no limits as to the union, or the circumstances in reference to which this power may be used. But, I submit, it does not seem reasonable, as in this case, that this power should be exercised to enable the Poor Law Board to do what another section (the 25th) says they shall not do. Besides, the connexion in which the words stand seems to point out plainly the circumstances in which it might be desirable that the Poor Law Board should have such a discretionary power. The law is, that "no ex-officio or other guardian shall have power to act in virtue of such office, except as a member, and at a meeting of such Board." (Section 38.) To this rule there are four exceptions, three clearly named, and the other a discretionary power on the part of your Board. In each of the three specified cases it is easy to perceive that the intention of the Legislature was not to enable the Commissioners to nullify the regular decisions of Boards of Guardians, but to make provision for cases where a difficulty might arise in securing the attendance of a number sufficient to transact the business required. The first exception is as to "the dissolution or alteration of any union;" and to do this requires the concurrence of "a majority of not less than two-thirds" (section 32), and that not merely of those present at a meeting, but of the whole of the guardians of the union. The second and third exceptions are the formation of unions for the purpose of "settlement," and the formation of unions for the purpose of "rating;" both of which require the consent in writing "of all the guardians of the union." (Sections 33, 34.) Now it is easily conceived that in many cases, where such objects as the above are thought desirable, even by the guardians themselves, that there would be a difficulty in getting together a sufficiently large number of the guardians so as to secure the "concurrence" of "two-thirds of the whole number" in the first case, and in the second and third cases, of "the whole number of the guardians;" and therefore, in such instances, it was a wise permission to be allowed to act "otherwise than at a Board." If Preston had been similarly situated, and if the erection of a union house had been thwarted by the members of the Board absenting themselves from the meetings in such numbers as to defeat the measure by non-attendance, then, I admit, the cases would have been parallel, and the exercise of your powers would have been a salutary measure. I would respectfully submit that the nature of the object of the one exception, conferring the power of dispensing with the necessity of personal attendance at a meeting of the guardians, is clearly indicated by the other three so plainly expressed.

Thirdly. Should not a copy of the document containing the "consent" of a majority of the guardians have been laid before the Board, and entered on the minutes, so that any guardian, and the ratepayers at large, might have made themselves acquainted with the contents of that document, and the names of those who had signed it?

I ask this because I find that the whole affair has been conducted with the greatest privacy, and many of the guardians have been kept in entire ignorance as to what was going on. The document containing the "consent" was never laid laid before the Board, and the only chance of seeing it was by individuals when they were canvassed for their signatures. They were consequently ignorant of the capacity or cost of the intended new house; and to this day they are ignorant of the names attached. Indeed, I am informed that many signed the document in blank, as to capacity and cost, and that the blanks were filled up afterwards. The paper was generally in the keeping of T. B. Addison, esq., and one or two other magistrates, who, week after week, were most assiduous in a private canvass. The signatures obtained, I have reason to believe, were principally those of the magistrates, about 20 of whom never attend to the affairs of the union, but who, it is believed, signed the paper chiefly as an act of courtesy. It is felt to be a great hardship by a majority of the elected guardians that the document should not have been openly laid before them, and entered upon their minutes; and they cannot help believing that if you had been aware of the manner in which this document has been got up, you would have hesitated to express "much satisfaction" at its reception.

Fourthly. Should not the clerk of the union have had the custody of this same document, and conducted the correspondence respecting it, so that the Board of Guardians might have called for the correspondence, and had a responsible officer to apply to for any information respecting the whole proceedings?

I ask for this information, because I cannot believe that you would lend the authority of your Board to that secresy which has enshrouded this affair. It is a public matter, and the cost is to be paid for by the public; and, upon issuing an order for guardians to sign "otherwise than at a Board," I am sure your wish would be that this should be done fairly, openly, and honourably, and in character with all the proceedings of public bodies. If the clerk was asked, I believe he would state that he has had nothing to do with the matter, and that a party took the blank form out of his hands, and that he himself has not seen the signed document. In your instructional letter, dated January 9th, he was required to cause the blanks to be filled, and the signatures of the guardians to be attached; but the paper was taken and kept by Mr. Addison, and he has never had an opportunity of doing so. The clerk, I believe, does not know how the blanks were filled up, nor what signatures were attached. Mr. Farnall, your inspector, without consulting the Board, has been in private communication with some parties here, and it is from him, as you state, that you received this document, the clerk never being employed in the matter.

A large number of the guardians and of the ratepayers feel that in the above proceedings they have not been fairly dealt with; and as this has been done under the semblance of your authority, I most respectfully request that you will favour me with answers to the above queries, and also that you will cause a full inquiry to be made into all the matters here alleged; and I trust you will see just reason not to press the order, dated March 7th, until a thorough inquiry has been instituted.

No. 11.—LETTER from the Poor Law Board to Joseph Livesey, Esq., dated 9 April 1856.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 20th ultimo, requesting their opinion on certain points detailed by you, connected with the order of the Board of the 5th January last, empowering the elected and ex-officio guardians of the Preston Union to give their consent in writing to the erection of a new workhouse, apart from a meeting of the Board of Guardians.

I am directed to state generally, in reply to your inquiries, that the Board are of opinion that there was no irregularity in the proceedings which you point out, but that they believe them to be in conformity with the statute.

The Board take this opportunity of recording their opinion, that the erection of a new workhouse, the proposal for which has been sanctioned by a majority of the guardians of the Preston Union, is calculated, not only to promote the permanent interests of the ratepayers, but also to provide more effectually than at present for the wants of the destitute.

I am, &c.

No. 12.—LETTER from Joseph Livesey, Esq., to the Poor Law Board.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

On the 20th ultimo I had the honour of transmitting to you a letter containing inquiries arising out of an order issued by your Board on the 5th January last, authorising the guardians of this union to sign the consent for a new workhouse "otherwise than at a meeting of the Board."

In that communication I had occasion to state how rarely the ex-officio guardians attended the meetings, and consequently how unreasonable it appeared that they should, by signing a private document, attempt to force upon the union a measure which has been repeatedly rejected when fairly introduced at a meeting of the Board of Guardians. I had not then access to any document that gave the particulars as to attendance; but now I beg to forward, in the slip enclosed, a copy from the clerk's returns for the last two years.

I have, &c.

On the state of the infirmaries.

In the men's infirmary on the ground floo found the ward offensive, and the methods wh had been adopted for constant ventilation alm entirely in disuse. At one time, on a cold day found six windows open.

In the rooms over this the means once used constant ventilation were out of repair.

The upper ward was the least offensive of three. In all, there were windows which ope into the adjoining burial ground.

In the women's infirmary also the rooms w close, and the means of constant ventilat scarcely attended to. In four of the six princi wards there was a draught of air from with passing through the privy into the ward. T was sufficiently strong in one ward to blow ou candle.

The medical officer, Mr. Waldegrave, told that he constantly ordered the windows to opened in all the infirmary wards; that he c sidered the crowding was the cause of the slowi of recovery of many of the cases; that frequen from the crowding, patients were put on the fl On one of the days of my visit there were men and two women on the floor.

Mr. Coster, the senior medical officer, said t the ground floor male infirmary had been so offens that he had asked the opinion of a physician as what should be done, and that he conside certain forms of disease, "ulcerative stoma and dysentery," causing death in some cases, resulted in part from overcrowding.

In the boys' infirmary, Mr. Coster said tha few days previously to my visit he was nausea by the excessive offensiveness proceeding fro sink and urinal in the ward. I found one win open, and the offensiveness of the ward was gr At a later visit the air was better. The master that the pipe from the sink which opened into drain had been trapped; but the nurse stated t sleeping room for boys immediately below the k ward had become more offensive since the imovement above.

In the girls' school infirmary, or short nursery, I nd the windows open before the children or rse were up. Six children were sleeping on the or. I was afterwards told that many of these ldren had been removed out of the workhouse.

In all the infirmary wards I consider the present owding too great.

I find that the means for obtaining constant ntilation are most imperfect.

The necessity for occasional ventilation in all e wards becomes so great that the windows are ened for many hours daily ; and that even with s occasional ventilation disease is produced and overy protracted.

In some wards the entrance of foul air is very perfectly prevented.

To what extent the numbers in each room ould be reduced, with the present ventilation, n only be determined by trial. If one third, or least one fourth, of the patients were removed, onsider that unless the constant ventilation was proved the state of the air would still be worse n in any London hospital.

The total number of sick and infirm is so great t the infirmaries, properly so called, are apable of containing them, and they are conseently put wherever room can be found for them the various buildings of which the house cons. The greatest want of order and arrange-nt is thus produced.

On the men's receiving ward and the women's receiving and casual wards.

My attention was very early in the inquiry ected to the men's receiving ward, and to the men's receiving and casual wards.

The women's wards consist of an upper and lower m communicating by an open staircase. In these o rooms eighty and sometimes more persons sleep. ing desirous to determine chemically the impurity of the air, I went early to the workhou Directions had been given that the windows w not to be opened. On entering two windows w open, and when the inmates were asked why th had neglected the orders given, they said th should be stifled if the windows were not opene

On the following morning I went still earlier. found seventy women and ten children. Omitt the children, the average space was 164 cubic f per person. The windows were said not to h been opened. The air, however, was by no me so offensive as I had expected from the accoun had received. I collected the air, and on exa nation it contained considerably more than one cent. of carbonic acid (1·14 per cent.) From the counts I had received I think some casual ventilat of the ward had taken place before my arrival.

Both the medical officers of the workhouse sta that the offensiveness of these rooms was excess Mr. Waldegrave stated that he believed he h seen fever produced by the crowding in t room.

Phillips, the assistant nurse, said that the up room is often so offensive at night that she wo like to open the windows, but that the inmates not allow her to do so. She has seen as many three or four persons of a night made ill w headache and sickness from the air. She thi the room has been more crowded lately than it u to be, and that she herself has become ill from foul breath. She complained of giddiness of head, sickness, and loss of appetite; and she w manifestly in a state of low fever.

She said the rooms were so crowded that many the lower rooms have no beds or even ticks to on, but they sleep on the floor, on the table, forms, or wherever they can find room to lie do

In the men's receiving ward I did not find air so close. The means of constant ventilat were the least possible. The crowding was su at I saw three boys aged thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, the same bed, four feet four inches broad.

The occasional ventilation caused by opening e windows in these wards alone prevents the nger of some of the inmates dying of suffocation. confirmation of this, Mr. Coster told me, when nquired why the windows in the women's wards d not been nailed up, as was proposed, for the rpose of ensuring the collection of the air, that was thought advisable not to do it, lest some one ould be suffocated, and thus give rise to a very desirable inquest.

I consider that if these rooms were even one half ger, or the numbers diminished one half, that ey would be too full, unless a better state of ven- ation were adopted.

Great evil also must result from the casual men sleeping in the women's receiving ward, and us introducing fever and other diseases into the use.

In the men's casual ward I saw in the evening, ng the greater part of each side of the room, a oden sloping frame, on which was placed some coa nut fibre bags, some blankets and rugs. out twenty-five adult men were expected to ep that night on these planks. One medical an, Mr. Waldegrave, told me he had seen ten en lying naked as close as possible on one of the nks.

On the night nurses sleeping room.

The room in the main building in which some the lying-in women sleep at night and the night rses sleep during the day appeared to me to ve less constant and occasional ventilation than nost any other in the workhouse.

In the morning early I found only four women bed. On two or three occasions, in the evening, ound every bed full, and the beds were as close possible. Sometimes there were ten people with 2 cubic feet each.

On two occasions I collected some air when all the beds had been occupied from two to th hours. There were two and three quarters cent. of carbonic acid in one experiment (2·7 and above two per cent. (2·02) in the other.

Both the medical men complained of the off siveness of the room.

The superintendent of the nurses, Mrs. Gr stated that the bed room smelt terribly, "enou to knock you down."

One old night nurse, who sleeps in the roo said, "it was very warm and comfortable," b that she thought it was as well to open the windo as soon as possible.

Though I cannot find certain evidence that nurses are injured by exposure to the atmosph of this room, yet the chemical evidence shows th such an atmosphere ought not to exist.

Moreover, this room was evidently taken off fr
the main passage of the north wing of the hou
It is the west end of that passage; and th the ventilation of the house through the w dow at the end of the passage has been ma worse than it was originally.

The same encroachment has been made at east end of the same passage. Here another w dow has been shut in by another room being form
This is called the convalescent women's ward.

At the south end of the main passage of building a similar encroachment is now being ma but the room is not yet completed. A portion the length and the whole of its breadth is pa tioned off, and this is to be inhabited this winter

I consider that all such encroachments are sig that the rest of the house is so full that the auth rities do not venture to run the risk of putting mo people into the rooms, and instead of making ne buildings these passages are enclosed, to the inju of the general ventilation. In confirmation of th opinion, I was told by the master that he had ma frequent reports, verbally and in writing, to t nagers, that the bed rooms were too full. He nsidered that the whole of the rooms in the use nearly were too full; and though no illness l actually, to his knowledge, been produced by e crowding, yet he is constantly afraid of illness ning on.

I am of opinion that all these passages ought to entirely cleared and opened.

On the infants' nursery.

The infants' nursery is a room which is more an other rooms liable to become offensive. I nd in it one morning in bed 25 mothers and children from ten months to five weeks old.
e fire had been lit above an hour, and a window o a passage had been opened, though it had been lered to be kept shut.

The air was collected, and on examination it ntained nearly two per cent. (1·8 per cent.) of bonic acid. The room was very offensive.

Mr. Coster, the surgeon, said that the room was y close; the children were always ailing, suffer-g with disorder of the digestive organs and loss nutrition; partly, in his judgment, depending the state of the atmosphere.

Mr. Waldegrave said the offensiveness was ex-me, but he could not say that the mothers fered from the atmosphere, though he considered t the amount of mesenteric disease among the ldren depended chiefly on the crowded state of e ward and on the want of ventilation.

The superintendent, Mrs. Gray, stated that this m was particularly offensive.

The old nurse of the ward, however, would not nit that she found anything objectionable, though e allowed that the mothers often complained of e atmosphere, and that she was glad to let in a le fresh air in the morning.

rom the analysis this room is at least twice too full.

On the children's bed room.

In one room eighty-three children sleep, and there ve been ninety; they are from seven to sixteen rs of age.

The governess, Miss West, stated, that offensiveness from the number of children such that it nearly made her sick at night wh she went into the room late, and that it wo make her sick if she went in in the morning; t she should object to sleep in the room herself she is sure it would make her ill; that the child are not unfrequently sick in the morning; t she has known three sick in one morning; t the two nurses who sleep in the room often h sickness in the morning, and loss of appeti that the health of one nurse is deteriorat that the windows are never open at night; t at the present time there are fifteen ill, so that windows cannot be open all day, but that they open two or three hours; that the children in t room never sleep more than four in a bed; t in the next room there have been eight child between one and seven years old in one bed f feet six inches broad and five feet six inches lon that she has seen cutaneous diseases spread fr the closeness of the children.

The nurse Fitzgerald said, that she had f quent attacks of nausea and sickness in the morni that she is getting out of health from the clo ness of the room; that she has known four five children of a morning complain of sickness a loss of appetite.

The number of children in this room ought be diminished until these symptoms disappe When one fourth or one third are removed, if same sickness still occurs, and there is the sa offensiveness still, more must sleep elsewhere; a thus the proper limit in winter and summer may found.

In the boys' sleeping rooms I did not hear of same symptoms, but in three of the bed rooms least there were unenclosed urinals, which entering the ward caused for some distance gr offensiveness in the air of the rooms.

There should be more beds, and the urinals ould be less offensive to the rooms if outside the oor.

In consequence of the crowded state of other rts of the house, some adults have been moved to some of the rooms of this building which ought be occupied by the children alone.

In two long excavated rooms, the adult men ngregate during the day. On the men's day rooms.

Late one evening, in one I found fifty men; e room smelt of tobacco; and on examination e air contained above one and a half per cent. ·6 per cent.) of carbonic acid; in the other, hich was oftener cleared, and then the windows nd doors opened, 150 are sometimes collected.

Mr. Waldegrave stated, that he had frequently een called to men who had fainted in the rooms hen the wards were most full in the winter. He id, that occasionally the rooms are so full that ere is no possibility of sitting down, and many e obliged to stay in the passages or to go to bed.

That the constant ventilation is very insufficient shown by the fact, that in the larger room, when e inmates go to the hall for meals, the air is swept t by opening the door and all the windows.

The man who has the charge of this room stated at many constantly complained of head-aches. hen asked what would happen if the door and indows were kept closed for an hour or two, he id that they would be suffocated; that he ould not then stay in the room on any account.

Another man, who had been messenger, and from ness was obliged to be in this room, said, that ough he had nothing to do in one place, and very uch in the other, yet that the air was so bad he ould like to be out of it.

Other inmates in this room gave me answers to e same effect.

Doubtless these rooms are improved by being more excavated, so that instead of six feet s inches high they are now nine feet six inches nine inches; but even now they are not one h large enough for the persons they are made to ho

Many in the fine weather keep out, and in the w weather walk in the passages.

At the end of the main passage I was shown unfinished pavement around a pipe from a sink.
was told that this was sometimes very offensi but I did not perceive that it was so at the time my visit.

On the laundry and under-ground sleeping rooms.

In a cellar opposite the laundry, under grou
I was shown a place where fifteen persons sleep.
could obtain no satisfactory evidence as to t state of this room. There was no chimney to t room, and no means of ventilation, except one sm window and the door.

The place was fit for a coal hole but not human beings to sleep in. The laundry itself formed out of a cellar on the other side of the p sage. How the required work can be done in t place I cannot comprehend.

On the same level under ground was a low lo room, seven feet two inches high, containing thir two sleepers. To prevent suffocation, the means constantly ventilating this room had been attended more than in any other room in the main buildin but even with this the superintendent, Mrs. Gra said that there was great offensiveness in t morning, and that many of the inmates complain that they felt faint and ill, and refused their food

Two wards, called separation wards, were a very low and underground, and in these night a day thirteen women and five children lived. Mo than one of the inmates said that the air was ve offensive in the morning, causing them to be sic others, however, did not complain of it.

All these rooms, and the two day rooms for t women on the same level, are very unfit for t rposes to which they are applied, and that they e inhabited at all is an evidence of the crowded ıte of other parts of the building. When the ıuse was built these rooms could only have been tended for store-rooms.

On the insane wards.

The wards for insane men and women are in ıne respects very objectionable. Some of the oms are also underground. In one of the rooms r the men a drain from the burying ground is id at times to be very offensive. In the outer ard I saw a small iron grating for the admission cold air. I found when I went outside that stead of opening into the fresh air it opened into privy.

I found two of the (insane) women's wards very fensive from putrid urine passed by bed-ridden ıtients. The windows were obliged to be conantly open.

Three insane women I saw in a part of the house lled Little Bedlam. A more objectionable place ould scarcely be found. It is fortunate that some rious accident has not occurred from the dan-erous staircase.

The insane men's and women's airing grounds rm part of a thoroughfare to the women's in-mary, the medical officer's room, dispensary, &c. itherto no evil has been known to result from is bad arrangement.

On the waiting rooms for the out-door poor.

The bad arrangements which exist at St. Pancras Workhouse in relation to the system of out-door lief ought not to be endured.

Before eight o'clock on a wet morning I counted arly thirty people standing in the street before a cked gate. No one was allowed to find shelter om the wet by admission until nine, by which our, I was told, above 100 persons would be ere. None were admitted after twelve. (Since is was written I am told that on three days the oor are admitted until two, and on Saturdays ntil four p.m.)

Sometimes the admissions amount to 900; so times only 300. They pass into a floor whic partly below the level of the ground, and whic divided into pens, to prevent accidents from strong crowding to the overseers' room for out-d relief.

At one o'clock another day, stepping over so urine, I passed through three pens which w crowded, some with men and some with wom and some of these had children in their arms.
offensiveness was extreme. I saw one sickly wo who had just been brought out to the women's ceiving ward, having fainted from want, and fr the offensive smell of the place. The medi men stated to me that two or three times wee they were called to similar cases, chiefly among women; sometimes among the men. Fresh air the chief remedy.

At half-past five o'clock I passed again throu the pens; still very many remained; at least 1
They had had no food all day, and many lou stated that they should not get any until se o'clock.

I was told that the want of air was so great t the windows were not unfrequently broken.

The relieving officer, Mr. Birchmore, said t the same applicant frequently came twice, or ev more rarely, thrice in the week; that all are lieved,—sometimes by half-past five,—sometimes till eight p.m.; that the ventilation used to be bad that his predecessor died from the foul air believe of typhus fever caught here; that e now, when he thinks everything that can be d for the place has been done, still the foul air pa ing through the door by which the poor enter office has made him and others ill; that they f the effect of the bad air; that it is so bad that directors are unwilling to come down into office; that he has had many scores of the p brought into the office having fainted from nosphere and the crowding, but that such cases fewer lately than they used to be. That the or often give up their tickets of admission, and away without relief, in consequence of the air l the crowding; that the place is so low in ground that he thinks no more improvement n be made in it; that he has suggested the tire removal of the relieving office, on account of e evils of the place as it is now.

Three of the medical district surgeons, Messrs. therin, Morris Davis, and Wildbore, all attrited much of the illness they saw among the or of the parish to the crowded state and suffoing atmosphere of the underground rooms. All ted to me that the poor constantly assigned this the cause of their illnesses. One medical man ted that he had heard the place compared to the ack Hole; another said that he had frequently en the poor brought out fainting. All said that e poor constantly applied to them for certificates illness, that they might obtain relief without ing obliged to apply at the office. Many of the or stated to them that they would sooner go thout relief than endure the crowding and foul .

One of the surgeons said, that before the last provements in this place the air was so bad that had told the relieving officer that some one uld die of suffocation, and that there would be erdict of manslaughter.

He stated that even now the air is only a trifle ter than it was.

I cannot sufficiently strongly express the opinion ave formed of the evils which result from the d, wet, foul air, and fasting which the poor dure. Whilst endeavouring to obtain out-door ief they are exposed to disease and even to ath.

Such a state of things ought not to be tolerated the Government.

Conclusions.

I come, then, to the following conclusions garding the accommodation in St. Pancras wo house:—

That there are one third or one fourth m patients in the infirmaries than they should cont and that with the reduced numbers the const ventilation would be insufficient; that the me of preventing the access of foul air seem hardly have been considered; and that from the adequacy of the buildings no order or arrangem can be observed.

That the women's casual and receiving wa should be separated, and the numbers reduced one half at least; and that then the constant ve lation ought to be improved.

That the nurses' bed-room, the convalescent wa and the room just made from the passage, sho be entirely cleared away.

That the infants' nursery should contain only h its present numbers, and that with this reduction constant ventilation also should be improved.

That a great reduction should be made in girls' (aged 7 to 16) sleeping room. How far t reduction must be made can only be determined trial.

That in the boys' school sleeping room and in other rooms no open urinals should remain.

That the men's day rooms (underground) twice too full, and should be better ventilated.

That the laundry and laundry sleeping ro ought to be moved elsewhere.

That other underground sleeping rooms are v objectionable.

That no less than from 123 to 175 persons sl under ground in this workhouse, and that fr 143 to 206 have their day rooms on the sa floor.

That almost all the insane wards are ill adap for the insane; some are unwholesome, and so unsafe.

Lastly, that the cellars for out-door relief are the rst part of the workhouse.

That it is fortunate that death has not taken ace among the poor in these cellars.

That disease and death has come out of them is rtain; and although everything that can be done s been done, I know no word more suited to them an horrible.

I might have particularized other rooms, as the omen's eruption ward, the men's infirm ward (31 d 32), the women's syphilitic ward, and, gene-lly, I may say, that I found no room in any part the house, except in the new building, tolerably ntilated; and in some of the rooms in the new ilding, and in many rooms in the older buildings, attempt has been made to prevent the entrance foul air from privies, sinks, drains, urinals, and il patients.

Recommendations.

The out-door relieving offices should be removed once.

Immediate steps also should be taken to lessen e crowded state of the house, by entirely removg the schools; for this, among other reasons, at an epidemic of low fever is at the present oment in the parish, and among the inmates, as is own by the fact that during the first four weeks of is month, 1st to 29th, forty-five patients have been tacked by fever. The arrangement by which the sual women are mixed with the women waiting r admission into the workhouse in the receiving ard is exactly that which is most liable to introuce and keep up an outbreak of low fever. These ards should be immediately separated.

It is very desirable that an entirely new building ould be made for an infirmary, where the access foul air would be prevented, and a perfect stem of ventilation could be adopted. Meanwhile, if the only good building at present existi might be used as the infirmary, many of the imm diate difficulties of the house would be obviated.

If your Lordship should already possess official intimation of this occurrence, I would beg the favour to be informed of the name of the pauper lunatic in question, or to receive any other information respecting the case that you can give me, in order that the same may be submitted at the meeting of this Board to-morrow, with a view to a communication of all the facts to the Visiting Commissioners now absent on the Bristol circuit.

Enclosure to the above.

Gentlemen, Bristol, 22 April 1856.

I THINK it right to inform you, that on Saturday evening last a dangerous lunatic cut her throat in the poorhouse of the Corporation of the Poor of Bristol, at Stapleton, and is dead, and I cannot learn that any inquest has been held upon her body. The Visiting Commissioners will, no doubt, remember that in some of their former visits they found that many lunatics were found in that house, whom they reported as having been improperly kept amongst the idiots there, instead of being sent to the proper asylum. I am credibly informed that in this case the husband has allowed 5 s. per week towards the support of his wife, and urged that she should be placed in the asylum instead of being sent over to Stapleton. It is stated here that at the time of the suicide neither of the two paupers who are placed over the lunatics in the workhouse were in the ward, but I presume you will obtain more correct information upon the subject than I can convey.

You will please to understand that I do not write this in my official capacity, but merely as a private individual, anxious that all the circumstances should be made known.

The nurses referred to were admitted into the asylum as paupers, the nurse, Bridget Bryant, having been for many years as a nurse in a private lunatic asylum in the neighbourhood, and therefore well adapted for the situation she held at Stapleton Asylum.

EXTRACT from the Waterford Newspaper, 4 March 1856.

Humanity of English Poor Law Officials.

WE have to record a case of inhumanity, if not barbarity, of English poor law officials. The facts are in themselves so very atrocious, that we will give them simply.

William Kelly, a native of Newcastle, in the county Limerick, migrated to Bristol more than 10 years ago, and has been resident and employed there during that period. About 10 days since he fell accidentally into the river, and got cold, and was taken to the Stapleton Infirmary, where he was treated for a few days; but while in a very weakly state, he was, without any notice, put into a cab, taken down to the Bristol steamer, and put on board as a deck passenger, without a morsel of food, or an atom of covering. The sailors on board, having more pity than the poor law officials, subscribed 1 s. to get him something to eat; but he was thus, at this wintry season, in an infirm, delicate state, exposed for a day and night as a deck passenger to the asperities of the weather, and the danger of sickness, and was landed here, a picture of suffering, thus thrown on our quay, and still 60 miles from his home. He fell into hands less harsh than those he met in England; he was sent by the Mayor to the poor-house until Monday, when he will be transmitted to Newcastle, county Limerick.

5.—The Governor and Guardians of the Poor of the City of Bristol to the Poor Law Board.

Gentlemen, Bristol, 3 April 1856.

We are directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th ultimo, enclosing an extract from the Waterford newspaper, dated 4th ultimo, relative to William Kelly, in which it is stated that he had been resident and employed in Bristol more than 10 years, that he lately accidentally fell into the river and took cold, and was taken to the Stapleton workhouse; that whilst in a weakly state he was, without any notice, put on board a Bristol steamer as a deck passenger, without a morsel of food or an atom of covering.

In reply we have to state, that the officers of the Corporation of the Poor never heard of his having fallen into the water. That he has not been resident in Bristol for 10 years, but has been wandering about the country, and, whilst in Bristol, generally in receipt of relief. That when taken to Stapleton Asylum, he was suffering from a syphilitic complaint of long standing, and, at the time he was removed to Ireland, was not in an improper state of health for removal, or worse than usual. That he frequently importuned the authorities to remove him to Ireland. Having been taken to St. Peter's Hospital, was in the course of three or four days (as soon as the next packet went) sent off to the steamer in a cab, because the calf of his leg was bad, and prevented him from walking.

As regards any insufficiency of food or shelter, the Corporation of the Poor have not yet had an opportunity of making proper inquiries of the captain and sailors, but no imputation is attributable in the least degree to the Corporation of the Poor in this respect, inasmuch as the fixed amount of passage-money for a deck passenger authorised by the regulations of the Secretary of State, expressly includes rations; and if the latter were not duly supplied, the fault rests with the master of the packet, the pauper being placed on board upon those terms. As regards shelter, the corporation of the poor are informed that there is good and sufficient means of shelter afforded to deck passengers, and there were other deck passengers besides the pauper.

We have, &c.

6.—Report of E. Gulson, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to the Poor Law Board.

Bristol:—Removal of Irish Paupers to Ireland, and Case of William Kelly.

I have made inquiry into the case of William Kelly, referred to in the annexed papers, and as to the manner in which Irish paupers are usually removed from Bristol.

It will be more convenient to explain as to the course usually followed before adverting to the case of William Kelly.

The deposition of the deputy governor, Mr. James Protheroe, shows, that in a few cases orders of justices are obtained for the removal of Irish paupers; but that when Irish paupers express a wish to be removed to Ireland, they are sent without any orders of removal being obtained.

He shows that the Corporation of the Poor of the city of Bristol have an agreement with the Bristol Steam Navigation Company, under which all paupers sent on board their packets are conveyed to Cork, Dublin, or Waterford, as the case may be, at rates agreed upon; which rates are,

|---|---|---|---|
| Cork - - - | 10 | 6 | For adults, half price for minors, and infants under 12 months free. |
| Dublin - - - | 10 | – | |
| Waterford - - - | 7 | 6 | |

together with 10 d. for rations for each adult, and 5 d. for each child.

The deposition of Mr. Protheroe sets forth the respectability of the persons trading under the firm of the Bristol Navigation Company, and his confidence that they will perform all engagements fully and fairly into which they enter.

Reference to the books of the Corporation of the Poor, and to the accounts of the Bristol Steam Navigation Company (which were willingly exhibited for my inspection by their secretary), shows that during the last year, viz., from 29th March 1855 to March 8th, 1856, 119 paupers were removed from Bristol to Ireland, viz.:

|---|---|
| 87 | Adults. |
| 16 | Children charged for, and |
| 16 | Infants not charged for. |
| 119 | |

|---|---|
| Of these 101 | were sent to Cork, |
| 8 | to Dublin, |
| 10 | to Waterford. |
| 119 | |

| | £. | s. | d. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| at a charge of | 48 | 3 | 9 | for passage money, and |
| | 3 | 19 | 2 | for rations. |
| | 52 | 2 | 11 | Total. |

On examining the books of the Corporation of the Poor, and the accounts of the clerk to the magistrates, I find that of the 119 paupers sent to Ireland in the last 12 months, 116 at the least have been removed without any order of justices, and that one order only was obtained during the period for the removal of a family of three persons (to Cork). It seems doubtful, however, from the variation in the names whether the family for whose removal an order was obtained, were actually removed, and if not the whole 119 were removed without orders of justices; at the least 116 of the 119 were thus removed.

It will be seen by the deposition of Mr. Protheroe that these facts are admitted, and an explanation given as to the motive for thus proceeding to remove paupers to Ireland without orders of justices.

I annex copies of the letters from the Bristol Steam Navigation Company to the Corporation of the Poor, setting forth the agreements which have been acted upon, and I also annex a written statement from the secretary of the Steam Company, setting forth the rations, and the mode in which they are supplied to paupers conveyed on board their vessels from Bristol to Ireland.

From this statement it will be seen, that in return for the 10*d.* paid on account of rations, the steward usually gives to each pauper a plate of bread and meat and basin of soup, or pint of coffee, at 12 o'clock, and that if the voyage occupies more than one day this amount of food is served out twice. There does not appear to be any account kept or check as to the supply of food; but the captain is held responsible by his employers.

I need not advert to the irregularity of these proceedings.

As regards the case of William Kelly, aged 25 years. It is shown by the books that this pauper has been frequently relieved during the last 12 months, as a casual pauper at Bristol.

The Admission and Discharge Book shows that he was admitted at Stapleton workhouse on June 1st, 1855, and discharged June 13th, 1855; admitted again at Stapleton on August 3d, and discharged August 17th; admitted again at Stapleton on September 14th, and discharged November 12th. The books show that he was at this time ill of venereal disease.

On February 20th, 1856, William Kelly applied for relief on account of having no work, and was relieved with a loaf of bread.

On

On February 27th, he again applied for relief, and had another loaf of bread, and an order of admission to the receiving ward, with the view of his being removed to Ireland in accordance with the wish expressed by him to the deputy-governor, as set forth in his deposition. No one heard of his having fallen into the river.

On February 29th, William Kelly was taken from St. Peter's Hospital to the Waterford steam packet in a cab, by a pauper named George Tucker, and was placed on board in the usual manner, a charge of 7 s. 6 d. for passage-money, and 10 d. for rations, being made by the Bristol Navigation Company to the Corporation of the Poor, on William Kelly's account.

The captain of the vessel by which William Kelly was conveyed to Waterford is now in Ireland, I was therefore unable to obtain an exact account of the time occupied by the voyage on February 29th; but, as far as I was able to ascertain, an average passage of about 24 hours was made on the occasion.

As to the state of William Kelly when in the receiving ward at St. Peter's Hospital, from February 27th to February 29th, I beg to refer to the depositions of Thomas Govier (the nurse of the ward) and Henry Clevely, who visited him there, both of whom depose to the very offensive condition in which his leg then was.

I beg also to refer to the deposition of the medical officer, Mr. Stansbury, whose books I examined.

From the account given by Thomas Govier, and the absence of all knowledge on the part of the medical officer of William Kelly's case, and from the absence of any record on the medical officer's books of that date, it is clear that he was for two days in the receiving ward of St. Peter's Hospital in the state described, without medical or surgical attendance. It is also clear that he was sent on board the packet for conveyance to Waterford, without any medical certificate as to his fit state for removal, though it is shown by the deposition of the deputy governor, that William Kelly repeatedly expressed his desire to be sent to Ireland, and that such was his desire seems also established by the evidence of George Tucker, who left him in the street on going for a cab, thus affording the opportunity for his walking away, if he had so desired.

No investigation of any kind appears to have been made as to William Kelly's removability. The account in the Waterford paper sets forth that he had been 10 years in Bristol; but as he is now represented by the books to be 25 years of age only, this may be doubted. The expression of his desire to be removed to Ireland, together with the knowledge that he was an Irishman, appeared sufficient, in the opinion of the guardians of Bristol, to justify his removal, and he was accordingly removed without any order of justices, in the same way as more than 100 other paupers have been removed from Bristol to Ireland within the last 12 months.

There seems no sufficient ground for believing that William Kelly was without rations or covering on board the commodious vessel of 350 tons, by which he was sent over, his rations having been paid for in the usual manner, and no complaint having before arisen against the management of the highly respectable company of merchants owning the vessels on the station. There is no security however against abuse and hardship in this regard under the existing system. Nothing short of the pauper's being accompanied by some one responsible for his proper care and treatment during the passage will effect this object.

Several important considerations appear to me to arise out of the facts elicited by this investigation.

1st. Is the expenditure from poor rates for the transmission of paupers to Ireland without orders of justices for such removals legal? If not, the auditor has neglected his duty, and should be called upon for explanation.

If this expenditure can in any way be legally charged upon poor rate under the existing law, I submit that a clause should be inserted in the new Bill now before Parliament, rendering it penal on the part of any guardians or officers to send paupers to Scotland or Ireland, otherwise than by order of justices, and declaring all payments from poor rate for the conveyance or transmission of paupers, or for the purpose of enabling them to be conveyed, illegal, except by order of justices.

Unless some such enactment is passed, the irregularity of sending paupers who consent to go, may be continued in the same way as it is now shown to exist at Bristol.

2d. As to the mode of administering medical or surgical relief at St. Peter's Hospital.

It appears to me that whilst paupers are placed under the charge of honorary officers, and are attended by them and their pupils, as is now the case, very little responsibility exists as to the proper care of the patients.

I have no reason to believe that any of the patients in charge of the honorary officers are in any way neglected. On the contrary, I have always been led to consider that they are well and carefully treated; but I submit that some one paid officer should be made responsible for the proper care and attendance of all the inmates of St. Peter's Hospital, in the same way as at other workhouses.

3d. It is shown that William Kelly was in the receiving ward for two days with a leg in the state described by the witnesses Clevely and Govier, without receiving surgical assistance, though, according to the evidence of Thomas Govier, Mr. Stansbury's attention was called by him to the case.

Mr. Stansbury himself deposes that he visits each ward daily, and it seems difficult to understand how so offensive a case as that described could escape his notice without neglect of duty, or how a man so lame as William Kelly is shown to have been, could remain in the ward two days and nights without the cause of his lameness being inquired into by the medical officer.

I am quite satisfied, however, that Mr. Stansbury has quite as much to do in attending upon the out-door paupers alone, in the city of Bristol, as to occupy his whole attention.

Enclosure, No. 1.

EVIDENCE taken at the Inquiry into the case of William Kelly.

Bristol:—St. Peter's Hospital, 11 April 1856.

James Prothcroe.—I am deputy governor of the Corporation of the Poor of the city of Bristol. In that capacity I am cognizant of the mode in which Irish paupers are removed to Ireland.

In those cases in which an order of justices appears to the guardians or the relief committee to be necessary for effecting the removal of the Irish paupers chargeable, application to the magistrates is made, and in some cases orders are obtained. In other cases the justices at their discretion decline to grant orders; considerable difficulty is experienced frequently in obtaining orders of removal of Irish becoming chargeable.

In cases in which Irish paupers express a wish to be removed to Ireland, they are not unfrequently sent without orders of removal being obtained. Under these circumstances the paupers are placed on board Irish steam packets, belonging to the General Steam Navigation Company, who take them and engage to provide proper rations for them as deck passengers. We have an agreement with them of which the following is a copy.

See Paper annexed, marked (B).

It appears by the bill from the packet company that 119 paupers were sent over from Bristol to Ireland between March 29th, 1855 and March 8th, 1856.

For the removal of, perhaps, two or three of these 119 paupers, orders of justices were obtained; but all the others were removed on their own request, and without orders.

I am not aware that any Irish paupers are removed to Ireland contrary to their own frequently expressed desire, except under orders of justices obtained for the purpose; but where the pauper expresses his desire to return to Ireland, orders of justices are not considered necessary; and in paying the passage-money and causing causing their removal, the guardians consider that they are doing a mutual service to themselves and the paupers by sending them home in this way.

The General Steam Navigation Company is a respectable company of Bristol merchants, well known to us, and we consider that they will fully and fairly carry out any engagement into which they enter; and that as they engage to provide rations, they will do so in all cases, as we pay them for so doing.

The character of the persons trading under this firm is such as to afford, in our opinion, a confident guarantee that they will take proper care of every pauper whom we place under their charge, in pursuance of our agreement with them.

I remember William Kelly, the Irish pauper who was removed to Waterford on February 29th last. He expressed to me personally his desire to return to Ireland; he several times stated to me his wish to be sent back, and in accordance with such expressed wish he was sent on board the Waterford steam packet, of 350 tons burden, in the usual way. In thus sending William Kelly to Waterford we considered that we were carrying into effect his own wishes; and looking to the respectability of the company in whose charge we placed him, I cannot believe that William Kelly was deficient in rations or proper care. I am satisfied that the statement in the Waterford paper to which you have drawn my attention cannot be a correct account.

Henry Clevely, sworn.—I am a pauper inmate of St. Peter's Hospital, and act as nurse in Surgery Ward, No. 14. I remember an Irishman of the name of William Kelly being in the Ward, No. 14, about 12 months ago. He was in the ward for three weeks; he was ill with venereal disease. He was a young man about 25 years of age, rather short and stout. I do not know the cause or the manner of his discharge from the ward at that time.

I saw William Kelly again, in Ward No. 12, the receiving ward, about five weeks ago. I heard of his being there, and went down to see him, as he had previously been a patient in the ward of which I am the nurse. He then had a very bad leg; it smelled to that degree, that I did not like to go near him; it was so offensive and bad, that I requested the nurse to take him into the yard and wash his leg in the open air. He told me he was going to Ireland, but I do not remember that he said he wished to go. I saw him again a day or two after, in the passage, when he was leaving the house to go to the packet. He was then lame, but, except for his leg, he appeared well. I wished him good bye, and he answered me the same. He made no objection to his going in my presence, nor do I know that he did to any one.

I have charge of all the sick wards in the establishment at St. Peter's Hospital, to a certain extent only, to the extent that, in the absence of other staff officers, I should see any case of emergency, if called upon, or if it was brought under my observation. I am the only paid medical officer in attendance upon the sick paupers at St. Peter's Hospital. There is a staff of honorary officers, consisting of three physicians and three surgeons, who attend at the hospital, mostly, daily. I consider these honorary officers responsible for the proper care of the patients under the charge of each. At the head of each bed there is the name of the physician or surgeon, as the case may be, under whose care the patient is. My duties consist in attending upon all out-door paupers who attend at St. Peter's Hospital for medical assistance, and all the out-door paupers who require attendance at their homes within the city of Bristol. I am also the resident medical officer of the Male and Female Lunatic Asylum at St. Peter's Hospital, and keep all the books connected with the new Act.

I visit each ward daily throughout the establishment, and attend to cases of emergency, if called upon to do so, even if the patient has been seen by the honorary physician or surgeon that same day.

> The deposition of Henry Clevely having been read to deponent, and his attention having been called to the date of William Kelly's residence in the receiving ward, viz., from February 27th to February 29th, 1856, deponent asked whether such a case as that described in the evidence of William Clevely could be in the ward set forth, or in any other part of St. Peter's Hospital, without deponent's becoming acquainted with it.

In reply, he deposes that he knows nothing of the case. He refers to his books, and can find no entry relating to it. He deposes, "As far as my books show, and as far as my recollection serves me, I have no knowledge of the case of William Kelly. I produce the books for your inspection."

> Note.—The books are examined by me (E. G.) and there is no entry of any kind on the days referred to relating to the case or name of William Kelly.

The deposition of Thomas Govier having been given, Mr. Stansbury was recalled, and the deposition read over to him. He deposes that he remembers nothing of William Kelly, that he is sure Thomas Govier did not actually show him the leg of William Kelly, and he has no recollection of anything having been said in his presence about Kelly's leg. He does not consider himself responsible, unless the leg had been shown to him.

Thomas Govier, sworn.—I am an inmate of St. Peter's Hospital, and have been so about eight months. I act as nurse in the receiving ward, No. 12. I remember William Kelly; he had a bad leg; it was very bad. He was in the ward two nights, from February 27th to February 29th last; his leg was very bad, but he was not ill except for his leg; his leg was not attended to by any one whilst he was in my ward; no doctor saw his leg whilst he was in the ward. It smelled very bad; I washed it and gave him some clean cloth. Henry Clevely came to see William Kelly when he was in the Ward, No. 12, and his leg was so bad and so offensive that Henry Clevely asked me to take Kelly out into the yard, and to wash his leg in the open air. I remember it well.

I told the doctor, Mr. Stansbury, of the state of William Kelly's leg. I think it was in the morning of the day on which Kelly was removed to the packet when I told Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury asked me if Kelly was going to remain in the hospital, and I told him he was going to Ireland, and he did not look at Kelly's leg, when he understood that the man was going to Ireland.

I did

I did not tell the doctor of the state of Kelly's leg till the morning he was going away, because Kelly did not complain so much of it till that morning.

Augustus Schubert, Porter at St. Peter's Hospital, sworn.—I remember a man of the name of William Kelly. He was admitted to Ward, No. 12, on February 27th last. I saw him the day he was sent away to the packet. He was lame, but otherwise seemed in good health. I paid 1*s.* for a fly to take him to the packet. His departure from St. Peter's Hospital was delayed, till it was necessary in order to enable him to catch the packet, to send him in a fly. This necessity might arise from the time of the departure of the packet being earlier than was expected.

I understood, from the conversation which took place on his departure, at the door, that he expressed a wish that he was at home in Ireland.

George Tucker, a pauper inmate, took William Kelly from St. Peter's Hospital to the packet. I have seen William Kelly at different times coming for relief during the last six months. I cannot trace the man on the books, because there are several of the name of Kelly.

George Tucker, sworn.—I am an inmate of St. Peter's Hospital, and have been so for about two years. I am employed as a house carpenter. For the last 12 months I have gone with the paupers who have been removed to Ireland from St. Peter's Hospital, to see them safe on board the packets; they all go from St. Peter's Hospital, except those who agree to meet me at the packet.

I never had any one of them who objected to go; some are more anxious to go than others, but no one ever objected to go whom I have accompanied.

I remember taking a man of the name of William Kelly to the Waterford packet on February 29th last; it was about nine o'clock in the morning. We had but half an hour to go to the packet after I received my directions, and I therefore took a cab, in order to reach the vessel in time; I left him in the street whilst I went to get the cab, and he afterwards joined me again. He had a bad leg, and was lame. He had been in St. Peter's Hospital about two months before, ill with venereal disease. He was a very dirty man, and he had his leg washed on the morning he went; he could have walked to the vessel, but we had the car to save time and catch the packet. He seemed glad to be sent over to Ireland.

COPIES of LETTERS of AGREEMENT under which the Bristol Steam Navigation Company convey Paupers for the Corporation of the Poor of the City of Bristol to Cork, Dublin, and Waterford.

To the Corporation of the Poor, Bristol.

Gentlemen, 1 April 1850.

THE magistrates of this city having applied to us for the terms upon which we could convey paupers from hence to Dublin, Cork, and Waterford, we have made an offer to perform the service at the rate of 6*s.* per head for adults, and 3 s. for minors, with the usual rations; and beg to inform you we are ready to accept the same reduced rates for those who may in future be sent from your establishment.

Enclosure, No. 3.

The Secretary of the Bristol General Steam Navigation Company to E. Gulson, Esq., Poor Law Inspector.

Sir, Quay, Bristol, 12 April 1856.

In reply to your inquiries of this morning I beg to state, that upon questioning the steward of the steamer from Cork this morning, I find that his usual practice is to give each pauper a plate of bread and meat and basin of soup or pint of coffee at 12 o'clock; and when the vessel's passage embraces two days, it is served out twice. The payment is an average of 10 d. The captain is the responsible person on board, and to whom, if needful, passengers of all classes are expected to appeal, and to whom the directors would look to see that every branch of duty was properly conducted.

In reference to Kelly, who embarked, per "Camilla," on 29th February last, I am enabled now to state that the subject of complaint was mentioned to her captain on Thursday, when he stated there was ample protection at his service; and any exposure he suffered must have been voluntary on his part.

I will inquire of the steward whether he was applied to for rations on her return here next week. I beg to assure you there is every disposition on the part of this and the Irish steam companies to afford those embarking in their vessels every possible accommodation, and promptly to remedy any cause of complaint when brought under their notice.

I remain, &c.

Edward Gulson, Esq. (signed) H. W. Hartnell, Secretary.

* The bill referred to is the time-bill of the Bristol General Steam Navigation Company for the month of April 1856. The fares set forth in this bill are as follows:—"Fares,—Cabin, 25 s.; servants, and children under 12, 14 s. (including steward's fees); deck, 7 s. 6 d. To and fro, cabin, 40 s."

7.—Supplemental Report of E. Gulson, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, to the Poor Law Board.

Case of William Kelly, a Pauper, sent from Bristol to Waterford per "Camilla," on February 29th, 1856.

Since the date of my report on this case, the "Camilla" has returned from Waterford to Bristol, and I have been able to obtain some further information, viz.:

The "Camilla" left Bristol at 10 o'clock in the morning of February 29th, and arrived at Waterford at six o'clock on the morning of March 1st. William Kelly therefore made his passage in 20 hours.

As to the supply of food to William Kelly, the steward gave him some bread and tea; the mate also gave him some bread, fish, and coffee, and some of the passengers gave him other food during the voyage.

William Kelly was the only pauper on board on February 29th, and the officers are therefore clear in their recollection of the man, and the way in which he was treated.

The captain and steward also state, that William Kelly was subjected to no exposure, that he was put into the fore-cabin, and that on leaving the vessel he demanded money from each of them, and was very impertinent because they refused to comply.

April 18th, 1856. (signed) E. Gulson.

8.—The Poor Law Board to the Governor and Guardians of the Poor of the City of Bristol.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
22 April 1856.

Gentlemen,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state, that they duly received your letter of the 3d instant, respecting the case of William Kelly, an Irishman, who was recently removed from Bristol to Waterford.

The Board considered it necessary to direct their inspector, Mr. Gulson, to make inquiry into the circumstances connected with this case, and they have received from him a report of the result of his investigation, both as regards the case of William Kelly, and the manner in which Irish paupers generally are removed from Bristol to Ireland.

The Board regret to observe from Mr. Gulson's report, the great irregularities which appear to be habitually practised with reference to the removal of Irish poor from Bristol, although the Board, in the correspondence which took place in the year 1851, relative to the case of John Daly, pointed out to the guardians the illegality of such proceedings, and recommended that they should be discontinued.

Mr. Gulson states that 119 Irish poor persons were removed from Bristol to Ireland during the year ended 8th March last, but that only one order of justices was obtained during that period, viz., one for the removal of a family of three persons to Cork. In the remaining cases, comprising at least 116 persons, the removals were made without any such order; and consequently the payment from the poor-rates, which was incurred for the passage-money and other expenses of the persons so removed, was illegal.

The Board are also of opinion that the arrangement made by the guardians for the supply of provisions to the paupers during their passage to Ireland is not satisfactory, and that sufficient precaution is not taken that they shall receive a proper quantity during the passage. If the regulations of the justices relative to the removal of Irish paupers contain any directions on this subject, it will be necessary that they should be strictly observed in future. But, at all events, some scale of diet should be adopted, and some one person be made responsible for supplying the necessary provisions.

As regards the particular case of William Kelly, great neglect appears to the Board to have occurred. As the man was for two days in St. Peter's Hospital, and was suffering from a sore leg, he clearly ought to have received the necessary medical treatment. He appears, however, to have had none; nor is it certain that the medical attendant at the hospital was informed of the case. While still suffering from the state of his leg, he was removed to Ireland in the highly irregular manner above referred to, and although, according to the evidence of the captain and steward of the steam-boat, it does not appear that he suffered from exposure during the voyage or actually wanted food, no sufficient provision was made, as required by law, in order to secure his proper treatment.

The Board trust that the guardians will give the subject their immediate consideration, and take the necessary measures to prevent the occurrence of irregularities similar to those above adverted to in future.

I am, &c.

To Messrs. Osborne, Ward & Co., Clerks to the Governor and Guardians of the Poor of the City of Bristol.

Secretary.

9.—The Poor Law Board to T. Meagher, Esq., M. P.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
22 April 1856.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter of the 12th ultimo, addressed to the President of the Poor Law Board, relative to the case of William Kelly, I am directed by the Board to inform you, that the result of a strict investigation, which the Board have caused to be made by one of their inspectors, has satisfied them that there was great irregularity in the manner in which William Kelly was removed to Ireland by the officers of the Incorporation of the Poor of the City of Bristol.

The Board have communicated their opinion of the proceedings in this case to the governor and guardians of that incorporation; and they trust that the official investigation which has been made, and that communication, will have the effect of preventing the recurrence of similar irregularities.

I am, &c.

To T. Meagher, Esq., M. P.,

10.—The Poor Law Board to John Seagram, Esq., District Auditor.

Sir,

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, 22 April 1856.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state, that they have received a report from their Inspector, Mr. Gulson, respecting the manner in which Irish paupers generally are removed by the Bristol Incorporation of the Poor to Ireland.

Mr. Gulson informs the Board that 119 Irish poor persons were removed from Bristol to Ireland during the year ended the 8th March last, but that in one case only, that of the removal of a family of three persons to Cork, an order of justices was obtained for such removal in the manner provided by the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117, s. 2; consequently, in the remaining cases, comprising at least 116 persons, persons, the proceedings for the removal were irregular, and the expenditure from the poor rate which was incurred in payment of the passage-money and other charges, was illegal.

The Board think it right to inform you of the effect of the report which they have received from Mr. Gulson, in order that your attention may be drawn to the matter at the future audits of the accounts of the incorporation.

They request to be informed of the circumstances under which the irregular practice referred to, has hitherto, as it appears, escaped your notice.

I am, &c.

(signed) Courtenay,
Secretary.

To John Seagram, Esq.,
District Auditor.

No. 1.—LETTER from Mr. Stanley to the Commissioners.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
30 January 1856.

Gentlemen,

I BEG leave to place before you the annexed portion of the "Civil Service Gazette" of Saturday last, the 26th instant, containing representations in relation to my duties and salary as your secretary, which are obviously intended to be prejudicial to me, my office being stated to be "absolutely a sinecure," and my salary being pointed to as an application of public money "for no earthly official responsibility."

The whole of the annexed statements have evidently emanated from this office, or have been founded on communications made by persons employed in it, and are calculated to create the more injurious impression in the public mind by appearing in a newspaper containing so much and such specific information on official changes, vacancies, and appointments, which can only be obtained through direct departmental access, and which therefore give the publication a seeming official authenticity.

If I could select my own duties, I would gladly undertake as much as would keep me fully employed at all times; but the duties which I perform have been assigned to me under approval of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in the arrangements recommended, for this office, by Messrs. Bromley and Stephenson; and all the remaining duties of the department have been appropriated to other parties, either by the same arrangements, or in consequence of the Commissioners' propositions thereon in letters of the 10th of June and 12th of October 1854, approved by Treasury Letter of the 27th of the latter month. However, although my duties are lighter than I wish them to be, the office of secretary is untruly described as a sinecure, there being required a daily attendance from between the hours of 11 and 12 in the forenoon until after five o'clock in the evening, and sometimes after six o'clock; whilst my leave of absence in the year does not exceed three weeks, at the same same time that even the junior clerks of the Commissioners' establishment can claim six weeks for their recreation.

In defence of my salary, which is proposed for elision, I may observe that it is less than the estimated official income of some of the poor-law inspectors, from among whom I was appointed secretary in 1847, at which period, as well as during the subsequent years of distress, the office was one of long daily labour. I may also observe, that when the present arrangement of business was promulgated, I declined acceptance of an augmentation of salary recommended for my office by Messrs. Bromley and Stephenson, believing that the duties they assigned to me gave me no claim to it.

I had no participation in the inquiry which led to the present apportionment of business, being at the time confined by severe illness, but I complained of the inadequacy of the duties assigned to me; and when you, soon afterwards, proposed that the office of secretary should be abolished, I at once acknowledged that the duties apportioned to me could be otherwise provided for. I felt, however, that all my proper duties had not been given to me.

The abolition of my office not having been carried into effect as proposed, I have been passively abiding any measures for this department which Government might decide on adopting; but now that persons employed in it, encouraged by the detrusion of my official position, have made an effort to hunt me down with statements in a newspaper having the appearance of official authenticity, I feel compelled to make a move in self-defence.

The object aimed at in the "Civil Service Gazette" is to have the poor-law administration in this country committed mainly to unpaid Commissioners, and to the office clerks, some of whose salaries should be at the same time augmented. I consider, on the other hand, that while only the present Poor Relief Acts are in force the effective control of local administration must be exercised in the unions through inspections and audits, guided by paid Commissioners, either here or in London; and that the greater part of the clerk-work in this department has become redundant and unnecessary.

I believe that when the present arrangements were recommended, an erroneous impression existed with respect to the extent of the office business to be performed, as well as of that which was really requisite.

For these reasons, and conceiving that without a further sanction from the Treasury you would not be disposed to alter the arrangements made after the inquiry by Messrs. Bromley & Stephenson, I request permission to lay before you, for consideration, with a view to departmental revision, a statement of changes in the office business of the Commission which may be carried into effect, under the present Poor Relief Acts, without impairing the efficiency of poor-law administration.

I have, &c.
(signed) W. Stanley.

No. 2.—EXTRACT from the "Civil Service Gazette" of 26th January 1856, annexed to the foregoing Letter.

"IRISHMEN, as units, are boisterous complainers; they are wranglers individually for their own safe keeping in the service of the State; yet, collectively, they ignore the claims of their class-fellows for proportionate rewards, however deserved. Unjust to their colleagues, they attempt, by a hundred indirect ways, to perpetuate the evils of strong official jealousies privately carried out in invidious distinctions. This is the case especially in the ranks of the civil service in Ireland. Piecemeal tinkering is the darling weakness of Irish reformers; it is traceable in all their office re-arrangements. It cannot be otherwise. The man, not his deserts, rules their preferences and guides their classifications. This weakness is peculiarly observable in their scales of specific payments to public servants. Some employés of the country are, in consequence, over-paid, some barely paid, the majority vastly under-paid. The prevailing system is rotten at its very root, and is notoriously one-sided; it is a miserable bungle, and a deliberate injustice. Hence follow the many instances of decided indifference and neglect in discharging laborious and responsible duties. Cases of reluctant under-paid service are, as a matter of course, numerous. The head-men of official life in Ireland generally are known to possess avowed and strong personal prejudices; the effects of these prejudices in action are peculiar and sufficiently conspicuous. The drudge-work in each office of the State is done, not by a fair-play distribution, but by coercion, or through a system of favouritism and exemptions. No country stigmatises itself more than Ireland does in the unequal distribution of its official labour. Partiality, bigotry, and caprice too often regulate that distribution and its rewards. There must be an end of this, or the business of the country will never be satisfactorily and economically performed. The broad distinctions of classification in the public offices in Ireland must be narrowed. Justice and fair play, according to British notions, must be plainly and universally adopted. The system, as at present existing, cannot and does not secure willing and undivided ability, and therefore it must be changed. Justice to England, as well as justice to Ireland, demands that the servants of the nation be treated according to their merits, and that the old tyranny of cliqueism be overthrown.

"We cannot exemplify the opinions we have expressed more strikingly than by a brief analysis of the Irish Poor Law establishment in Dublin. The press of the sister country has recently followed in our wake, has taken this department into review, and has passed very pungent strictures upon its heavy expenditure. We cannot quite agree with our contemporaries in their objections to the expenditure. The arguments for curtailment are based on the proposition that this expenditure comes from the pockets of the poor rate-payers of the soil. Nothing can be more erroneous. The Irish rate-payer is not saddled with a single farthing of the amount: far from it. As well might it be advanced that the Irish rate-payer is taxed with the emoluments of the Lord Lieutenant. They are not so. The lowest persons in the employment of the Irish Poor Law establishment, and from them to the Chief Commissioner, all derive their revenue from the Imperial Exchequer. It was contended that the clerks of the establishment were vastly overpaid; and reductions in their numbers were suggested. That the senior classes of clerks are properly paid we rejoice to record; the nature of their duty and the amount of daily labour exacted eminently entitle them to their recently improved salaries. These salaries are just what they ought to be; no more. But we regret to state that the improved scale fell so lamentably short towards the junior classes, by far the more numerous body of the Poor Law officers. That these classes have been made a miserable exception in the reform extended to the senior classes is a melancholy, but a truly Irish fact. Fidelity, duty, and ability considered, these classes have been most unequivocally sacrificed. The Commissioners must see the manifest injustice it is, and how contrary the practice is to the spirit of fair play, to make and sanction the wide disparity which exists in the salaries of the third and fourth classes of the establishment, and the salaries of the first and second classes. In our journal of the 5th instant, we drew public attention to this unparalleled injustice. We repeat, the disparity is monstrous. It is a barefaced degradation. Why, we ask, not allow the third-class gentlemen to reach a maximum equal to the minimum of the second class? And why not allow the fourth class to combine with the third? Are the miserable payments given at present to those classes sufficient for their absolute requirements? They are not. None know this better than the Commissioners; and if they had the courage to do their duty, they would not allow their subordinates thus flagitiously to be wronged another hour longer.

"If the establishment expenditure of the Irish Poor Law Commission is to be reduced, and that it requires to be reduced we are willing to accede, let it be done in a more effectual way than by any paltry attempts at cheese-paring the salaries of the clerks of the offices. In policy and in practice, such puny attempts are deceptive, and lead to official jobbery. Why retain at independent incomes 10 Poor-law inspectors, and at the same time salary four medical inspectors? The thing is monstrous! Here is a field for rational and equitable curtailment. Besides, one auditor should be sufficient to audit the accounts of unions within each province. But that which to all thinking men is the grossest imposition on the British revenue, and the most wanton extravagance of the public purse, is the continuance of three paid Commissioners and a secretary. The existence of such a quartet is a downright absurdity; and when it is remembered that the Chief and Under Secretaries of State in Ireland are by

Act

Act of Parliament ex officio Commissioners, the whole constitution of this Board is a curiosity, or perhaps we should rather say, a caricature. Here are facts suggestive of large and bonâ fide retrenchments. Now that the question of a provision for the coming year's expenditure of this establishment, in common with the other Irish commissions, will immediately arise, we trust, if reductions be necessary, and we admit they are so, that they shall be effected in the right direction, and where the country may be substantially benefited.

" In order to give the public a correct view of the interior of this establishment, and show where the retrenchment may be made without detriment to the country or injustice to individuals, we subjoin a few particulars. Mr. Alfred Power, Chief Commissioner, has a salary of 2,000 l. a year; Mr. Edward Senior, Second Commissioner, 1,200 l. a year; Mr. J. M'Donnell, M. D., Medical Commissioner, 1,200 l. a year; Mr. William Stanley, Secretary, 1,000 l. a year. This last officer is paid for no earthly official responsibility. The terms of his appointment totally relieve him from responsibility. His post is absolutely a sinecure. No sign manual, or authority in the executive of the poor laws, attaches an iota of weight to him; yet he is the calm and consoled recipient of 1,000 l. a year, abstracted from the national purse. Mr. Benjamin Banks, the chief clerk of the Commission, at a maximum salary of 750 l. a year, is, to all intents and purposes, the acting and active secretary of the department, which may justly be proud of his efficient and untiring services. The present ex officio Commissioners are the Right honourable E. Horsman, Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, and Colonel Thomas A. Larcom, Under Secretary; the latter appointment being permanent under any and all changes of Government. There are 10 poor-law inspectors, and four medical inspectors, which, calculating at a pretty fair estimate, say of 700 l. a year each, cost the State upwards of 9,000 l. a year for supervision of Irish workhouses. Besides, there are inspectors of union accounts, five in number, who are termed poor-law auditors. These gentlemen, for two visits a year to each union in their districts, receive 50 l. a year each, or a total of 2,750 l. a year for certifying the Irish poor-law union accounts; accounts, be it remembered, kept with extremel abour of detail by the miserably paid union clerk, checked by him with vouchers, which he produces, and the accounts are fairly squared by him for the auditor's signature; the process of a previous inspection by the auditor partaking little of the clerk's mental agony and hard work. Thus, the auditing of poor-law union accounts in Ireland, and the inspection of her workhouses, take from the British Exchequer 11,850 l., or say, 12,000 l. a year; a sum vastly exceeding the total amount paid annually to the entire official corps of the poor-law establishment at the Custom-house, from the chief clerk to the foot of the establishment there; an amount not exceeding, if it reaches, 9,800 l. a year.

" If, then, we set the figures plainly down, and summarise the expenditure of this one Irish department, we arrive at the following near results, namely, three paid Commissioners, 4,400 l. a year; one secretary, 1,000 l. a year; fourteen inspectors, 9,000 l. a year; five inspectors of union accounts, 2,750 l. a year; total 17,150 l. a year; adding to which the total salaries, say 9,000 l. a year, paid to the entire four classes of the establishment, consisting of 48 gentlemen, a number barely equal to the requirements of the department, the British Exchequer, not the Irish poor-rates, disburses on this service 26,150 l. annually. Thus, too, it is at once seen that the 48 gentlemen, pent in from morning to night at continuous, laborious, and mental drudgery at the Custom-house, receive little more than one-half the rewards of the 23 well paid officials; or, on a clear average, levelling official classification of payments, each of the 48 gentlemen said to be overpaid average an absolute salary of 187 l. 10 s. a year, whilst the 23 counter-part of the official corps in Ireland are in receipt of 745 l. odd each per annum. How heart-sickening to the 28 of the 48 permanent gentlemen of this Irish service, to be condemned to 100 l. or 150 l. a year; 16 at the present moment standing still at 100 l. a year, made pitiably less by 5 l. a year or so income tax; while 12 stride up the ladder to their miserable maximum (minus also some 8 l. or 9 l. income-tax) of 150 l., where they are destined to remain. It will hardly be believed that in those classes gentlemen are found having claims upon the Crown for 15, aye, 20 years faithful public services. Nevertheless, such is the fact. This malady, this grievous wrong, is the result of an iniquitous and corrupt love of distinction in Irishmen, unhappily too prevalent in the classification of employés in the State service. The system works perniciously, and it demands immediate reform."—[The Civil Service Gazette, 26th January 1856.]

No. 3.—Letter from the Commissioners to Mr. Stanley.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, 31 January 1856.

The Commissioners for Administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, have received your letter of the 30th instant, accompanying an extract from the "Civil Service Gazette" of Saturday, 26th January 1856.

You are under the impression that the materials embodied in that article have been supplied by some person or persons employed in this department. It is possible that such may be the case; and if so, the Commissioners would gladly receive from you any information which might lead to the detection of any persons who have committed so serious a breach of the rules of official propriety. The Commissioners do not see, however, assuming your apprehensions to be well founded, in what way such a circumstance can be said to give the article an appearance of "official authenticity;" and, without further explanation, they are unable to attach any definite meaning to these expressions. The Commissioners (you must be well assured) would not fail to visit, with the severest punishment in their power, the conduct of any officer in their employment, who should so far forget his position as to communicate to any journal materials for comment on the internal arrangements of this department.

The Commissioners regret that you should feel it necessary, in consequence of this occurrence, to enter upon any explanations to the Commisioners in self-defence.

You are in no way responsible for the fact that the recommendation of the Commissioners to abolish the office of secretary, conveyed in your letter to Sir John Young, of the 2d December 1855, has not as yet been carried into effect. That recommendation was founded on the greatly diminished pressure of the secretarial duties, rather than, as suggested by you, on the withdrawal from you of duties properly belonging to the secretary.

The Commissioners are not aware of any change made in this respect, other than the arrangement whereby a portion of the general union correspondence, which used to pass through your hands before receiving the final direction of the Commissioners, now comes before them directly, and without such intermediate process; and it is clear that this change was not a withdrawal from you of any duties strictly secretarial.

In reference to the constancy of your attendance in the office, and the limited extent of your leave of absence from duty, the Commissioners agree with you in thinking that the extent of such leave has been very small; but they regret that you should mention that fact by way of comparison with the extent of leave allowed to other officers, inasmuch as you are aware that there has never been any unwillingness on the part of the Commissioners to give you the same extent of leave as is enjoyed by their inspectors or by themselves.

You are of opinion that the greater part of the clerk-work in this department is redundant and unnecessary, and that an erroneous impression has existed as to the extent of the business to be done, as well as of that which is requisite; and you ask permission to lay the changes which you think it desirable to make in the office business before the Commissioners for consideration, with a view to departmental revision; conceiving, as you say, that without further sanction from the Treasury the Commissioners would not be disposed to alter the arrangements made, after the inquiry by Messrs. Bromley and Stephenson. The Commissioners can only state, in answer to this request, that you must act entirely according to your own discretion as to the mode which you may choose to adopt of giving effect to your opinions, if you intend to abandon the ordinary mode of bringing the internal arrangements of the office before the Commissioners for their consideration, a course of proceeding which the Commissioners feel it necessary to state they cannot in any way recognise or approve.

By order of the Commissioners,

(signed) B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

REFERENCE having been made to the correspondence with Mr. Stanley, and to his memorandum, proposing certain changes in the office business:

It was Ordered,

That the memorandum be forwarded to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, together with the reasons of the Commissioners, as set forth in the margin of the memorandum, for not adopting Mr. Stanley's suggestions; and that Mr. Stanley be furnished with a copy of the correspondence with the Treasury, and of the marginal notes on his memorandum, and with a copy of this minute.

No. 7.—OBSERVATIONS of the Commissioners on the Memorandum of Mr. Stanley.

(1.) COPY of MEMORANDUM.

A STATEMENT of Changes in the Office Business of the Irish Poor Law Commission which may be carried into effect under the present Poor Relief Acts without impairing the Efficiency of Poor Law Administration. (Laid before the Commissioners in pursuance of their Minute of 1st February 1856.)

(2.) COPY of OBSERVATIONS.

AS RESPECTS ELECTION OF GUARDIANS.

Order and Instructions.

BY abbreviating the election order and instructions, and by simplifying the mode of election and forms used, much much correspondence which now arises would be rendered unnecessary.

THE election order and instructions run nearly parallel with the same documents in England. The original forms,

The nomination of candidates, instead of being made on forms to be sent to the returning officer, and therefore presenting facilities for fraud, might be effected with less liability to error, failure, imposition, doubt, and inquiry, at an open meeting in the guardians' board-room, a few days before the time for their ordinary weekly meeting at the period; and if a list of the candidates so named were at such ensuing meeting of guardians submitted by the returning officer, he having power to receive any further nominations there tendered, this preliminary proceeding in the election would occasion no difficulty, and present no opening for fraud or complaint, and occasion but little correspondence.

The sending of nomination lists to the Commissioners, as now required, does not appear to be necessary for any purpose of the Poor Relief Acts.

Again, the voting for candidates is now exposed to much abuse and illegal interference, which might be avoided by taking the votes in writing at a place in each electoral division or ward, where the returning officer should receive them from the hands of the ratepayers or holders of proxies, who, on attending (the collector for the division or ward being present to identify and assist), would have merely to get voting papers having only written on them at the time the number of votes entitled to be given as in the lists, whether as occupiers, landlords, or proxies; on these papers the voters should write, or cause to be written, the name of each candidate for whom the votes would be given, and each voter's signature or mark.

Each paper should then receive from the returning officer a number next in succession to that on the paper previously received, and next to which the newly completed paper should be placed on a file, with the written side reversed.

The present general distribution of voting papers on printed forms, containing many particulars and much instruction, leads to many causes of complaint arising from the printed papers not being delivered, or from their being intercepted and suppressed, or from having forged signatures affixed forms, both of the order and instructions, were adopted in 1838, and have since been improved by a very careful and elaborate revision. It is not stated in what way, retaining the present mode of election, the order and instructions could be advantageously abbreviated. The object of every paragraph in those documents is to secure uniformity of practice on the part of returning officers, or to anticipate points which must arise in practice, and which would necessarily create correspondence with the office. There is no paragraph the omission of which would not be likely to result in an increase of correspondence, and therefore increase of clerkage in the office.

The merits of the two questions raised under this head cannot be weighed in reference to economy in office clerkage only; but even in this respect the proposal is not a good one.

The object of the present system, which was copied from England during the time of Mr. Stanley's first secretaryship, was to bring the means of voting home to each of the members of a large and extended constituency, the greater proportion of whom could not afford the time and trouble which would otherwise be lost in exercising the privilege.

Nomination.

The first privilege of the ratepayer is to nominate a guardian for the electoral division in which he pays rates. It is almost always exercised, as might be expected, by residents in the electoral division; and this may be done, on any day between the 25th February and the 4th March, by delivering or causing to be delivered to the returning officer, at the union board-room, a nomination in writing, or it may be sent by post.

Mr. Stanley proposes that, instead of this, ratepayers from all electoral divisions in each union should assemble in the board-room of the guardians on a fixed day to nominate guardians. As regards a considerable number of rural electoral divisions, this plan seems to be almost impracticable, as a journey must be taken of from eight to thirty miles (whatever the state of the weather might be on the day fixed), by one or more ratepayers; otherwise the first affixed to them as alleged, or from their being fraudulently altered or carried away: and much correspondence is occasioned which would not arise if a system less exposed to abuse or failure were adopted.

In many cases the present system exposes ratepayers to grievous importunity, and sometimes serious injury, as they must vote in the way dictated, or give offence; and the law does not require that ratepayers shall be thus subjected to an avowal of their inclination, or of their dependent position, which latter may force them to act against their feelings and wishes for self-protection. The law gives to every ratepayer the right of voting, but does not subject any, as do the present election arrangements, to the hard necessity of exercising that right under all circumstances.

There is no greater source of trouble to the office in these election proceedings, under the present system, than a failure to nominate. It does not, however, often occur; when it does, a supplemental order renewing the proceedings ab initio must necessarily issue. There can be little doubt that under the plan proposed a failure to nominate on the day fixed, would occur in a very large proportion of the rural electoral divisions in Ireland; and the correspondence with the office thereon would, no doubt, result in a great increase of clerkage work. The correspondence arising on the nomination of candidates, as at present conducted, is by no means a considerable part of the election correspondence.

Taking the Votes.

Under the present system this operation is done, and easily done, in two days, by one returning officer for each union, no matter what the number of contested electoral divisions may be, and at a very slight expense, which is charged on the union; the constabulary throughout Ireland giving their services in distributing voting papers, and in collecting them, at 1*s.* per day for each constable so employed.

The votes so collected are brought by the constabulary to the returning officer at the union board-room. Any breach of trust, or even failure in the exact discharge of this duty by the constabulary, is of extremely rare occurrence.

The plan proposed is, that the returning officer should attend in each electoral division to receive the votes, and that the ratepayers should wait on him personally to give their votes in writing.

The average number of electoral divisions in a union is 20, and there are some unions with more than 30; and not unfrequently several contested elections arise in the same union. The local effects of the change in every case may be summed up as follows: increase of labour, time and expense as regards the returning officers, candidates and voters, accompanied by more or less of the confusion naturally attendant on a public meeting where the presiding party has no authority to enforce order. In populous electoral divisions it is probable that serious, sometimes fatal, tumults would take place. It is very difficult to see how, under the proposed plan, the local evils of importunity and intimidation of ratepayers would be diminished.

It is assumed that under the present system a ratepayer is compelled to vote, because a voting paper is left at his house for that purpose. This is not so. He has only to omit filling the voting paper if he wishes not to vote. Assuming that violent measures will be taken to make him vote, they would be of a far more serious nature if personal attendance at a polling place were made part of the system. Money payments to compensate voters for loss of time and trouble, a practice of which we know nothing at present, would be introduced.

Under 6 & 7 Vict. c. 92, s. 23, the Commissioners are constituted a court of appeal in disputed elections of guardians; and undoubtedly undoubtedly the discharge of this function entails a great deal of labour and correspondence, the weight of which, however, has never fallen on the Secretary. The officers who have experience in this branch of business would see with apprehension open nomination meetings on fixed days, and personal voting at polling places, exchanged for the present system. Instead of the difficulties which now arise on voting papers which have miscarried, or have been tampered with while in the voters' hands, which difficulties generally admit of some satisfactory solution, we should take in exchange, difficulties arising out of failure to nominate, tumultuous meetings, personal violence, bribery, and personation of voters. It is not thought the correspondence would be less than at present, while the inquiries would be more complicated, and the decisions more difficult to arrive at, than they are under a system where every operation is limited to written documents.

Proceedings of Boards of Guardians.

I consider that the transmission of copies of minutes of Boards of Guardians' proceedings to the Commissioners leads to much office business which may be terminated without impairing poor law administration.

In Article 47, No. 13, of the General Regulations, each clerk of union is ordered to send a copy of the minutes of every meeting of the guardians to the Commissioners, or to the inspector for the district, as may be directed. [See form No. 1.] I consider that every such copy should be sent only to the inspector.

The guardians should then communicate with the Commissioners by letter when necessary, like the dispensary committees. The inspector of the district would be responsible for attending to any occurrence of irregularity or abuse recorded.

The transmission of the minutes to the Commissioners does not enable them to exercise any effectual control in the most important business of each union, next to the actual relief of the poor; that is, the entering into contracts for supplies, their receipt and consumption.

When any change of diet may be ordered by the guardians, an opportunity of inquiring or objecting is presented; but this would be equally the case of the inspector, if the minutes were sent only to him, and it is obvious that a change of diet may be of far less consequence than the quality of the potatoes, milk, stirabout, bread, or soup provided, on which the minutes convey little information.

Under the head of "Workhouse Diet and

The transmission of the copy of minutes of each meeting of a Board of Guardians to the office of the Commissioners, is a practice resting on considerations paramount to any question of saving in clerkage. It may, however, be observed that the present mode of registering and dealing with the contents of those documents, involves the minimum amount of expense with the maximum amount of advantage.

The registry is now accomplished by merely preserving a file of the minutes transmitted, in a separate portfolio, for each union.

Each set of minutes is immediately examined in the office on its arrival, and any urgent business at once disposed of; and every paragraph or entry which requires attention, separately marked by a letter. The paper is then sent to the district inspector, with a blank sheet on the face of it, with letters corresponding to the letters marked on the minutes. Against each of these letters, the inspector makes his remarks on the passage indicated by that letter and returns them to the office, when they are finally disposed of by directions of the Commissioners, entered on the same sheet. It seldom occurs that matter arising on the minutes of one meeting is not disposed of before the next meeting.

The principal advantages are:

1. That the Commissioners become acquainted as soon as practicable with every recorded act of every Board of Guardians.

2. That a correspondence with each Board and Supplies," a check will be found suggested for consideration.

The misconduct of officers may sometimes be discovered through the minutes, but when recorded there it could not escape the inspector; and it is to be observed that the delinquencies of officers are for the most part discovered through personal complaints, and must come to the knowledge of the Commissioners, independently of the guardians' proceedings.

A failure in the guardians to meet should be promptly known to the Commissioners; but this is provided for by Article 6 of the General Regulations, which requires the clerk of the union to report the fact to them.

I consider the form of minutes (according to the copy sent to the Commissioners' office) defective. In the printed portions references are made to the receipt of reports from the visiting committee, the master, and other officers; but the only case in which the substance of the report is required to be inserted is in the case of the clerk's report on the execution of directions given by the guardians. The matter of the others is left to be inferred from the nature of any direction given on them.*

For one most important book, no special heading or introductory reference is provided: "The Master's Journal." By Article 64, No. 28, of the Workhouse Order, the master is required to record in this book every important occurrence in the workhouse, and to cause the book to be laid before the guardians at every ordinary meeting. He is further required, by Rules 29 and 30, to report in this book on the state of the wards, utensils, and furniture of the workhouse, pointing out all defects; also, on the neglect or misconduct of officers or servants.

Neither is there in the minutes any special

(2.) Copy of Observations.

Board on the more important business transacted, is sustained systematically and punctually.

3. That an accessible record is kept within the office of all union proceedings, at very little expense, and with very little trouble.

The control exercised by the Commissioners through the medium of those minutes is only of a limited nature, but nevertheless very useful, so far as it goes. It is not intended (as seems to be inferred in some of Mr. Stanley's remarks on the form of minutes) to enable the Commissioners to interfere with the final discretion of the guardians in matters which are exclusively within their province as an executive authority; yet even here occasion sometimes occurs to point out any manifest impolicy shown on the face of the proceedings. If the guardians have adopted, or contemplate adopting, any illegal course, as sometimes happens through inadvertence, the error is promptly pointed out, and the consequences either prevented, or quickly stayed.

In the correspondence necessarily arising on matters in which executive authority resides with the Commissioners, as in the appointment or removal of officers, the regulation of salaries, &c., the Commissioners have the advantage of receiving the guardians' views in their own language, and are thus enabled to act with more promptitude and certainty than if the business were conducted by letter through the medium of the clerk or chairman, or any other organ of communication.

The proposal that the minutes should go to the district inspector would have the effect of transferring the responsibility of dealing with the information afforded by them from the Commissioners to the inspector, excepting in so

* I beg leave to correct a portion of the statement made by me to the Commissioners on the 4th instant.

In observing on the headings in the present form of the guardians' minutes, I state that the heading for directions on the reports of the master and other officers of the workhouse does not require the substance of the reports to be given, which is left to be inferred from the directions recorded.

I should have added, that although the substance of the reports made is stated, the full information necessary for showing the state of the workhouse is not required, by the heading, to be placed on the minutes.

In this portion of my observations I have sought to sustain the recommendation that a printed form of minutes should not be used; but that an outline of all the particulars that ought to be in the minutes should be printed and affixed at the beginning of each book.

I request that this correction may be appended to my statement.

5 February 1856. W. S.

special heading or introductory statement for the book which, by Article 54 of the Workhouse Order, the master is required to keep, and which by Article 56 is directed to be read at the guardians' meetings, for their directions or their consideration, on all cases of refractory or disorderly paupers to be punished, and all cases punished without direction.

It is obviously of much consequence that these rules be strictly observed, and that the particulars in all reports and in the Master's Journal shall be set out in the guardians' minutes, whether the copy is to be sent to the Commissioners or only to the inspector. I also consider that all reports of committees or officers should be made in books like the Master's Journal; so that the inspectors, on going to each union, may be sure to see every statement made to the guardians respecting the workhouse from the time of previous inspection.

The providing of a printed form of minutes does not appear to be advisable.

It would, I conceive, be better to have one printed outline of the minutes supplied to the clerk of each union, with directions to have a copy affixed to the first leaf of each minute book, and to follow this outline in preparing the minutes of the proceedings at all ordinary meetings. This outline should be conformable to the requirements in the Accounts Order, Part 1.

As respects the guardians' minutes relating to medical charities, this portion of the guardians' minutes (which is on a supplemental sheet) might also with advantage be prepared on plain paper, according to a printed formula annexed to that for the minutes of proceedings under the poor law; and the copies of such supplements might be sent to the inspector of the district (the medical inspector), instead of to the Commissioners. [See Form, No. 2.]

As the guardians have to provide medicines and other requisites for dispensaries, on the application of the committees, I conceive that copies of the minutes of these bodies, in each union, should be sent to the guardians, and their particulars be incorporated in the guardians' supplemental minutes; also, that the return, Form (L.), which the medical officer is required to lay before the committee at each ordinary so far as the Commissioners would be responsible for the proper discharge of the duty arising thereon by an officer whom they appointed, and can remove. With the present experienced corps of inspectors, uniformity of practice might be preserved in some degree for a time, but even that would eventually wear out by the introduction of new hands, or the occurrence of new materials for consideration. Even the best of the inspectors cannot have the knowledge of precedent, or the familiarity with principles, which exists at the central office. It would be, of course, very unfortunate if the action taken by different inspectors on the same matter were different; and still more so, if an individual inspector dealt with the business in a manner which the Commissioners could not approve. But the most fatal objection is, that under the existing poor laws, the inspector, if prepared to act rightly, does not possess the authority which would enable him to act at all, and that an imperium in imperio like that proposed could not legally exist. The information obtained must, after all, reach the Commissioners through the intercepting medium before any action could be taken. It is scarcely worth while to consider what the difference in the cost of clerkage would be under a system in which so much would be sacrificed in uniformity, certainty, promptitude, and propriety of administration.

Printed Form of Minutes.

A printed form of minutes has been in use since the year 1843. It is highly useful to the guardians and the clerks of unions, who would not willingly dispense with it; and it is most useful in the central office, because, in the frequent references made to this document, it is known in what part any particular subject will be found.

The proposed change to blank forms would increase clerkage in the union Board-room; and it would certainly not diminish clerkage at the central office.

Defects in printed Form.

The complaint under this head is rather inconsistent with the suggestion that a printed form ought not to be used. Part of the complaint of defectiveness is admitted, by Mr. Stanley's supplementary memorandum, to be without dinary meeting, should be forwarded to the guardians with the copy of minutes; and that the copies of minutes and returns from all the dispensary districts of each union should be sent by the clerk of the guardians (after having been read by the latter and recorded) to the medical inspector, who should combine them in a periodical report to the Commissioners, on the dispensaries of the union.

In this manner, the particulars and extent of medical charities relief would be placed fully before Boards of Guardians and the Commissioners, combined for the latter in 163 quarterly or half-yearly reports. The multitudinous returns made quarterly, in Form (L.), to the Commissioners might be dispensed with [see Form No. 3], and only one return in this form would have to be supplied to the office by the medical officers, which would be required for the annual report.

The law does not appear to require the transmission of lists of all the members of dispensary committees to the Commissioners, as directed by the regulations; and these very numerous papers, which do not appear to be necessary for any legal purpose, might be dispensed with.

without foundation. The remaining suggestions that the Commissioners or inspectors should be enabled by a fuller form of minutes to judge of the quality of the potatoes, milk, stirabout, bread, or soup, and exercise effectual control over the contracts for the supplies of those articles, their receipt and consumption, appear to be founded partly on a mistaken view of the executive duties respectively belonging to the Commissioners and the Board of Guardians, and partly on an overestimate of the means of judgment on such matters derivable from any mere record of proceedings.

It is sufficient to add, with regard to the merits of the existing form of minutes, that they have been carefully considered, and revised and improved from time to time, and that the object in view has been chiefly to secure a uniform practice in the financial operations of the Boards of Guardians in Ireland, and a uniform arrangement of their statistical records, as well as of the order of the business transacted at each meeting.

The proposed additions to the forms, whatever their merits may be in other respects, could not have the effect of diminishing the amount of clerkage in this department. The same remark applies to the suggestions regarding the medical charities portion of the minutes; to which objections also exist, which need not here be entered upon. The quarterly Form (L.) is a return of which the uses may not be known to Mr. Stanley, but it is one of much importance; and a doubt exists whether it ought not to be made monthly, as was originally the case in regard to a more extended form of the same kind.

One object of retaining the form is to save the expense of continuous visitation by the medical inspector of the several dispensaries (about 200) in each district. Another is, to keep the Commissioners informed of any existing or impending epidemic in any locality. We are at this moment apprised, through these returns, of the great likelihood of small-pox breaking out as an epidemic in various localities in Ireland. The amount of clerkage caused by this return is very inconsiderable.

The amount of clerkage caused by the receipt of the lists of dispensary committees is scarcely an appreciable quantity.

Workhouse Diet and Supplies.

A considerable amount of office business would entirely disappear if the minimum dietary set forth in the 13th article of the workhouse regulations were brought to a standard, and required to be adopted in all unions, and were to enforce the use of bread at one meal daily, as well as prescribe a substitute to be used for milk, in unions

It is here asserted that a considerable amount of office business would disappear if a standard dietary were established, enforcing the daily use of bread, and prescribing a substitute for milk when it cannot be had.

In the first place, the correspondence about dietaries is not considerable, and its tendency is to decrease. Secondly, there unions where milk cannot be obtained in sufficient quantity during winter and early spring.

There can be no difficulty in the adaptation of one uniform dietary to the wants of the destitute poor in all parts of Ireland, as the appetite for food must be equal throughout the country; and equality of diet would prevent any tendency to roam from one union to another, which may exist among habitual paupers.

On a general dietary scale being made imperative, any workhouse master giving a less quantity of food, consisting either of the primary articles named or the substitutes for them specified in the order, would incur a penalty, under the 102d section of the Act 1 & 2 Vict. c. 56, increasing on the third conviction to fine and imprisonment.

A fixed dietary rule would have a further security, in its enabling the Commissioners to direct other officers of the workhouse to see that it is observed, without devolving any discretionary or other authority to such officers, but merely establishing a check like that of one clerk on another in matters of account or money.

I conceive that the workhouse chaplains and medical officer should, under such a regulation as now proposed, inspect the diet day by day, as respects the apportionment of bread or potatoes, the consistence of soup or stirabout, and the measures used in the distribution of the latter two and milk.

I also consider that the chaplains and medical officer might be usefully induced to undertake in turn the duty of examining the supplies of meal, bread, potatoes and milk, or other food at the time of delivery. The inspection of the general supplies would, of course, be incompatible with the social position of clergymen and physicians; but this objection does not apply to their examination of the food intended for the workhouse inmates. As a sanitary precaution, the inspection would be peculiarly the province of the medical officer; and clergymen would no doubt undertake it from the interest which all classes of them feel in whatever concerns the poor.

In any case in which the chaplain and medical officer should concur in condemning food supplied, the master should be bound to exercise his power of rejecting it; and every condemnation of food should be reported in the master's journal.

there is no probability that the proposed changes would assist to diminish the extent of such correspondence. The less arbitrary the rule as to diet, the less likelihood of correspondence between the guardians in order to adapt it to the views of the latter and to the opinion of their medical officer, under the varying circumstances of season, supply, atmospheric conditions, and general health of the inmates.

As to a substitute for milk, we know, in practice, that one medical officer prefers cocoa, another meat, another molasses, and so on; and a single substitute furnished by the Commissioners for a natural product so peculiar in its constitution as milk, could not, by any chance, be satisfactory to the medical profession at large.

As to the other advantages which it is said would attend a fixed dietary, the writer has forgotten that there is in every union a fixed dietary; fixed by the guardians (subject only to the rule of a certain amount of nutriment) and therefore more likely to be enforced by the guardians on the master and other officers, than a uniform dietary fixed by the Commissioners for use throughout Ireland.

The project of empowering the medical officer and chaplains to inspect supplies of food, and by a joint judgment of one chaplain (it is not said which of the chaplains) and the medical officer to condemn inferior articles, seems neither practicable nor expedient.

The medical officer has, by the workhouse regulations, the duty imposed on him of reporting to the guardians any defect in the quality or quantity of food, and on such report it is for the guardians to act.

An order of the Commissioners purporting to give the proposed authority to a chaplain, would probably be removed by certiorari to the Court of Queen's Bench, and be quashed for illegality. What seems more certain is, that the proposed interference of the chaplains in such matters would lead to a great deal of correspondence of a new kind between the guardians and Commissioners, and so increase the cost of clerkage in the poor law office.

(1.) Copy of Memorandum. (2.) Copy of Observations.

Weekly Returns of Persons Relieved and of Deaths.

Returns of relief are now made weekly in two forms on the guardians' minutes, and two others supplied separately. [See Form No. 1 ; also Forms 4 and 5.] These returns occasion frequent communications to the clerks of unions.

If the information not in one were added to that in the others, so as to form one complete statement of relief, there would be some diminution of business both in this office and in each union.

The workhouse accommodation portion cannot now be necessary weekly, as in the years of distress.

A half-yearly return would probably be sufficient, and avoid the weekly repetitions which occur under the headings of this statement.

In ordinary times, when the workhouse mortality is much diminished, it would appear to be more convenient to deal with one long half-yearly return of deaths, than to classify the cases in 26 separate short returns ; and the clerk can, as accurately, make up the statement for a half year as for a week, the medical officer's record of sickness and mortality containing all the particulars required except the date of last admission to workhouse, which the registry-number indicates.

I therefore suggest that the Return of Deaths now made weekly to this office [Form No. 6] be made only half-yearly.

The return on the guardians' minutes is a very short and simple transcript of the various classes of inmates from the diet book on a certain day past, before the day of meeting of the guardians. Reference is constantly had to it by the Commissioners in dealing with the business on the minutes, or other business relating to the union.

The other separate weekly return is framed to elucidate other matters, besides the classes of inmates ; and it is the groundwork of the statistics which appear on the second page of each successive annual report. The fluctuations observable on the summaries of the weekly returns furnish matter of extreme interest to the Commissioners, and probably to most readers of the reports.

The Commissioners cannot part with these returns for the sake of some saving in clerkage ; nor can they consent to forego the advantage of seeing a weekly report of the causes of death in the workhouse. Such a return, although now less interesting through the absence for several years of any serious epidemic, may, at any moment, become more interesting by the exhibition of facts which may lead to timely measures of precaution ; and it is well in the meantime to know, from week to week, that the general sanitary state of the country is satisfactory. The proposed half-yearly return would be of little practical value.

Appointment of Officers.

It would facilitate business if all candidates selected by Boards of Guardians to be put in nomination were, previously to election, to write answers to the printed queries on a separate paper, so that the decision of the guardians should be confined to those unaffected by any disqualification and otherwise eligible.

If the copies of guardians' minutes be sent only to the inspectors, all appointments should be notified by letter ; and the clerk of each union should be provided with the printed queries now supplied from this office, which might then be annexed to a printed form of letter for notifying each appointment.

The proposal to deal in the Dublin office with the qualifications of the several candidates for a union office, instead of the qualifications of the person elected by the guardians (whatever may be its merits in other respects), would so manifestly become the source of a great increase of correspondence and trouble, that it is surprising to find it included in a scheme for diminishing the cost of clerkage.

So far as the suggestion may relate, as it seems to do, to officers whose appointment is subject to the approval of the Commissioners, the course proposed would be a departure from the provisions of the law, which vests in the Commissioners the responsibility of approving or disapproving, not candidates, but persons actually appointed.

Collection of Poor Rates.

A circular is at present sent to each of the 163 unions in Ireland, 12 times in each year, with a printed form for a return of particulars as to current rates, and rates agreed upon but not signed. [See Form No. 7.]

This return, as indicated by the second note at foot of the form, was devised for the period of great pressure in the office business, and of financial difficulty in the unions.

At present, there can be but few, if any instances of more than two rates in a year; and in many unions only one rate is made annually.

The half-yearly financial statement, Form 5 A., contains the date, poundage, and particulars of the current rate, also of the arrears of former rates authenticated by the auditor; and the further information sought by the return has reference to the assessment for annuities, or was required in the period of pressure with a view of expediting the arrangements for having new rates put in collection.

The information in the audited financial statement for each half year, would appear to be sufficient for all present purposes.

This statement would even appear to render unnecessary the fortnightly or weekly returns of the collection of rate now made, and which were also devised in the time of financial pressure, for enabling the Commissioners to see how the collection proceeded in each district, and which of the collectors required to be stimulated to exertion. [See Form No. 8.]

I consider that these returns may be dispensed with, and that the half-yearly abstracts, and the inspectors' quarterly reports, will supply all the information as to rates which is now ordinarily requisite.

The monthly circular first referred to creates very little clerkage in this office; and the return is valuable as a convenient means of reference to obtain that prompt information which is continually required, and which could not be afforded by the half-yearly abstract.

As regards the other return objected to, it must be admitted that the direct supervision exercised in this office over the collection of the poor-rates in Ireland is an exception to the general official practice of the Commissioners, which is to endeavour to lead the guardians themselves to supervise, with effect, the execution of duty by their paid officers. The practice of corresponding directly with the clerk and collectors on this branch of poor law administration commenced during the famine, under circumstances which made that interference absolutely necessary to the due execution of the Poor Law Acts; inasmuch as, for obvious reasons, the local energy of Boards or committees of Boards of Guardians could not be everywhere relied on.

The result was that, notwithstanding the difficulties of the period, it has been shown by an account taken in 1851 of the collection of rates up to that date, two per cent. only of the rates imposed throughout Ireland had been lost; that six per cent., though not collected, was still collectable and outstanding in the shape of arrears, and that 92 per cent. had been actually lodged with the treasurer.

There is no doubt that at this time the same degree of necessity does not exist for this direct interference on the part of the Commissioners, and that the collection of rates proceeds without difficulty in most unions. Remarkable cases sometimes occur of unions, in which every farthing of the rate imposed is realised. Still it must be borne in mind that this satisfactory state of things has existed, and exists, concurrently with a good deal of action on the part of the Commissioners, which is taken on these periodical returns. The dilatory collectors are admonished; those holding sums of money in hand are warned of consequences, if they do not immediately lodge them with the treasurer; and what is, perhaps, of most importance, this return, which is obtained weekly or fortnightly, as the case may be, from the clerk of the union, guarantees the regular and punctual examination and audit of the several collectors' accounts by that officer, in pursuance of an existing regulation to that effect.

To show that the causes which originally led to direct interference ference from Dublin in the collection of poor-rates are not wholly extinct, the following passage occurs in an inspector's report of the 6th instant:

"I have spent this day with the committee in proceeding with the examination of the collectors' books. The state of the collection is still very unsatisfactory; and the Commissioners can estimate the difficulty of improving it, from the fact that some of the members of the rate committee were themselves among the defaulters."

Upon the whole, the Commissioners are satisfied that this direct supervision of the collection of poor-rates is still working usefully; and as the matter is one of much importance, they are not prepared at present to discontinue it, for the purpose of a saving in clerkage.

Checks on the Collectors.

As a check on collectors, I suggest the following arrangements:—

1. That no person except a collector of county cess be appointed to collect two rates in succession in the same electoral divisions.

2. That, on every collector attending at the office of the clerk of the union for examination of his accounts, the counterfoils of the receipts issued be separated from the receipt-book, and filed.

3. That the clerk keep a duplicate of the collection-book for each electoral division; that he enter therein, from the counterfoils, the amounts collected and numbers of receipts given; and that the duplicate book of each division be laid weekly before the guardians, who can, by seeing the amounts received, also ascertain by what ratepayers the outstanding amounts are due, which would show whether the collectors' duties are actively and impartially discharged. The duplicate collection books thus used would be important records for the guidance of the inspectors.

Some of the changes proposed, if approved, would require a supplemental general order, more especially those relating to dietaries, there being particular dietary orders in force in a few unions.

4 February 1856.

The Commissioners have always given the most earnest attention to any means suggested of effectually preventing or detecting fraud or default by collectors of poor-rates, and would gladly adopt any useful addition to the checks now in operation.

The suggestion here made, that no collector except a collector of county cess should be appointed by a Board of Guardians to collect two successive rates in the same district has, no doubt, for its object that a succeeding collector should be enabled to discover certain descriptions of frauds sometimes practised, if they had been used by his predecessors.

For this single object, however, a great deal would be sacrificed in regard to the local knowledge, experience, and efficiency of the collector, and a good deal of general inconvenience caused without necessity. It is enough, however, to observe that any order or rule of the Commissioners limiting the choice of the guardians in the manner proposed, would not only be resisted, but resisted with success, as no authority to make such a rule resides with the Commissioners.

The remaining suggestion of a duplicate collecting book to be entered up by the clerk of the union would entail a great additional labour on that officer; and the objects to be gained, so far as they appear, would not be worth the trouble imposed.

The Commissioners are not prepared, therefore, to adopt these checks, which appear to have been put forward as a substitute for the proposed withdrawal of their direct control over the collectors.

No. 8.—Copies of Correspondence with the Treasury, handed to Mr. Stanley with the foregoing Minute, and with the Commissioners' Observations on his Suggestions.

(No. 3340/56.)

(1.) Letter from the Commissioners to Sir C. Trevelyan.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, 1 February 1856.

I am directed by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, to forward, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, a copy of a letter addressed to them by their Secretary, Mr. Stanley, on the 30th ultimo, together with the reply of the Commissioners to that letter.

With regard to the opinion expressed by Mr. Stanley in this unusual mode of communicating with the Commissioners on the subject of the internal arrangements of the department, the Commissioners have this day directed him to lay a memorandum before them in the usual manner, setting forth "those changes in the office business of the Commission which," he thinks, "may be carried into effect under the present Poor Relief Acts without impairing the efficiency of poor-law administration."

The Commissioners, when they have received Mr. Stanley's suggestions, will not fail to place them before their Lordships, together with a statement of their own views in regard to what may be proposed by him.

The Commissioners submit, that Mr. Stanley is in error in considering that the recent inquiry made by Messrs. Bromley and Stephenson takes from the Commissioners the responsibility of adopting any further improvement in the office arrangements, or any further means of retrenchment which may present themselves from time to time; and they have, therefore, wished Mr. Stanley to understand that it was his duty to have submitted to the Commissioners, by the ordinary means of communication in daily use between the Commissioners and their secretary, any suggestions which might occur to him of the nature referred to.

I have, &c.

(2.) Letter from the Commissioners to Sir C. Trevelyan.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, 11 February 1856.

With reference to the letter addressed to you, by direction of the Commissioners for Administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, on the 1st instant, relative to certain changes in the conduct of the business of this department, which had been suggested by their secretary, Mr. Stanley, in which the Commissioners stated, that when they had received Mr. Stanley's suggestions they would not fail to place them before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, together with a statement of their own views in regard to what might be proposed by him, the Commissioners have now the honour to forward, for the information of their Lordships, a copy of a Memorandum which they have received from Mr. Stanley, in accordance with their Minute of the 1st instant, containing the suggestions referred to, together with the reasons of the Commissioners for not adopting those suggestions, set forth in the margin of Mr. Stanley's memorandum.

By order, &c.

(signed) B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Sir, Dublin Castle, 26 June 1856.

Referring to my letter of yesterday's date, forwarding returns, pursuant to an Order of the House of Commons, dated the 17th instant, of the number of inmates in the union workhouses in Ireland, &c., I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to transmit herewith a communication which has been received from the Poor Law Commissioners respecting the above returns, and which I am to request may be attached thereto.

(No. 17368/56.)

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin, 24 June 1856.

Sir,

The Commissioners for Administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to state, for the information of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that in the Return just made by them to the Order of the House of Commons of the 17th instant, those facts alone are stated which are required by the Order to be returned, for the information of the House.

There are, however, some additional facts which, as this Return has been called for and made, the Commissioners think it proper to submit to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

In reference to the second branch of the Order and Return, it is stated on the official documents which have been returned, as showing the consideration on which it was suggested to Mr. Otway by the Commissioners, that he should reside in Dublin, although not within his district, that, at the dates when the letters were written, his district consisted of 13 and 12 unions respectively. Mr. Otway's present district, however, consists of 21 unions, and is traversed by two lines of railway, which radiate from Dublin, and pass through the central towns of no less than nine of those unions.

Mr. Otway has also a second residence, situate in a part of his district which is most remote from Dublin; and this place of residence, which is his own property, forms the demesne referred to in the 3d branch of the Return, as consisting of 99 acres, Irish plantation measure.

With regard to the 3d branch of the Return, in which Mr. R. Bourke is returned as occupying 357 ½ acres of land, the Commissioners have been in communication with Mr. Bourke on the subject, and they find that of this number about 60 acres only are arable, 170 unfit for cultivation, 80 bog and moor, while 40 acres consist of plantation, and eight of roads, gardens, &c.

It appears, further, that Mr. Bourke originally took the place to which the land in question forms a demesne as a residence only, the owner retaining the land; but that, under subsequent proceedings in the Court of Chancery, he has become become lessee of the land also, the house and land having been let together by auction, in one lot, at a rent for the whole not exceeding what would be thought a reasonable rent for a country gentleman's house and demesne in a country district On the recent termination of this lease, Mr. Bourke requested the Commissioners to remove him to another district, which request it was not in their power to comply with.

By order of the Commissioners,

(signed) B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

The Right Hon. Edward Horsman, M.P., &c. &c. &c.

* These amounts are exclusive (except where otherwise mentioned) of extra medical, midwifery, and vaccination fees.

Note.—This return has been prepared from information supplied by the several clerks to the Guardians, and it is believed that in some few instances, beyond those specified, the salary of the workhouse medical officer is added to that of the district medical officer; but in the majority of cases the salaries of the workhouse medical officers have been wholly excluded, as the order does not appear to comprehend that class of officers.

RETURN of the MEDICAL OFFICERS under the POOR LAW ACTS, showing the Name of each Union, Names of Districts into which divided, Population of each District, Area in Acres of each District, and Amount of Salary paid to each Medical Officer, stating the Amount of Annual Salary, or Amount of Fee when paid by Case; made up to Lady-day for each of the Three Years ending the 25th day of March 1853, 1854, and 1855 respectively.

* Parishes under Boards of Guardians. (G. I.) Gilbert's Incorporations. (L. A.) Places under Local Acts.

(a) Bromyard Union.—The medical officer's salary was increased 100 l. at Christmas 1855, on condition of his dispensing the medicine himself, which had previously been done by a dispenser at a salary of 50 l. per annum.

(b) Hereford Union.—In addition to the amounts paid in 1853 (which were for a part of the year only), the sum of 210 l. was paid to two medical officers for the two new districts into which the union was divided. (a) Dorking Union.—At Lady-day 1855, the Effingham District was annexed to the Upper District.
(b) Guildford Union.—The medical officers' salaries of the Albury and Godalming districts have been since increased 5 l, and that of Worplesdon 15 l. per annum each.
(c) Newington, St. Mary, Parish.—The salaries are exclusive of medicine, which is supplied from the workhouse dispensary, to which a dispenser is appointed at a salary of 95 l. per annum. There are two dispensaries in the parish from which the poor obtain medical relief, and close by are the hospitals of St. Thomas and Guy's.
(d) St. Olave's Union.—The medical officer (who boards and lodges at the infirmary) devotes his whole time to the union, and receives no fees or allowances beyond his salary.
(e) Rotherhithe Parish.—In 1854 and 1855 the sum of 120 l. was paid on account of cholera in addition to the salary.
